PEOPLE HIDING FROM STRIKERS

St. Petersburg Is Panic-Stricken Because of Threatening Mobs.

THE STORES NAIL UP

REVOLUTIONISTS ARE ACTIVE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 26.—St. Petersburg was in a panic today, but to a large extent apparently without reason. The most alarming rumors were in circulation and the shopkeepers on all except a few of the principal streets closed their stores and boarded up the doors and windows, while peaceful-minded inhabitants kept within doors. Anxiety was evidenced in the whole atmosphere of the city, but so far nothing has occurred to justify these fears. There were no disorders.

Gen. Trepoff, who has been placed in command of the St. Petersburg garrison and given an additional division of reinforcements, declares that he is amply able to maintain order, and the police are allowing the strikers to vent their enthusiasm so as to avoid a conflict. Gen. Trepoff instructed the police not to interfere with the parades so long as they were orderly, but he gave notice tonight that the was prepared to cope firmly with any disorder. He had printed in all the evening papers a notification that the troops would tomorrow be ordered to use ball cartridges without any preliminary firing of blank cartridges in case there should be any outbreak.

Soldiers Move Trains.

Today with the greatest exertions the government succeeded in moving trains manned by military operatives on a few railroads. Traffic was resumed irregularly on the Moscow & St. Petersburg railroad and on lines from Moscow to Brest and Kazan. Today's efforts were directed to the moving of cattle trains so as to meet the pinch of approaching famine in the two capitals, and one train-load of cattle arrived at St. Petersburg and another at Moscow. Peasants are also driving cattle on the hoof into Moscow. A scanty supply of milk, butter and eggs is arriving in St. Petersburg over the Finland railroad, the employes of which refuse to strike.

The situation, however, cannot be regarded as much improved. The strikers at their meetings today were as determined as ever to continue the strike, and the full force of the government railroad battalions is almost helpless in the face of the general strike on the railroads.

Students Throw Up Barricades.

Picturesque details have been received of the uprising at Kharkoff, where students and strikers took possession of the locality in the center of the city containing the university, the cathedral and other buildings, threw up barricades, constructed a regular fortress and elected a provisional government, but cool heads on either side effected an arrangement which made it unnecessary for the troops to storm the revolutionary citadel, the defenders of which marched out with full honors of war.

Minor tumults are reported from other cities, but in general the strikers are adhering to their determination to make the protest in orderly fashion in order to show themselves to be fit for self-government.

The strike has proved most effective in forcing the government to speedy action on measures which have been slumbering in commission for many weeks. Wednesday night the ministers finished the final draft of a law creating a responsible council of ministers and today completed the revision of the statute granting freedom of assembly, both of which will be taken to Emperor Nicholas tomorrow for signature. Tonight the ministers held another session, meeting formally as the Solsky commission, but in reality as Count Witte's cabinet, to discuss the election regulations of the douma.

Revolutionary Funds a Mystery.

It is reported that M. Witte, simultaneously with the promulgation of the cabinet statute, will issue a proclamation defining his policy and asking the nation to give a fair trial to the new governmental system and resist the efforts of the revolutionaries to throw the entire country into a state of anarchy.

The source of the funds which are apparently at the command of the revolutionists is a mystery. In Moscow the revolutionary committee is paying strikers 15 cents daily, and has invested large sums in arms and ammunition. The tactics of the revolutionists in St. Petersburg are apparently to create a reign of terror. Warnings have been sent to merchants on fashionable thoroughfares to close in order to avoid pillage and the torch. The doctors are receiving notifications ordering them to discontinue visits to the sick on penalty of death. Word has been passed among servants mysteriously that a mob was preparing to sack the residences of the better class.

Apprehension apparently prevails in imperial circles. It is reported that the imperial yacht Polar Star is lying off Cronstadt, constantly under steam, and that the smaller yacht Strelia is held in waiting at the wharf at Petershof for emergency use.

Child Born at Sea Finds Grave There.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—When the steamship Prinzess Irene reached here today from Gibraltar and Mediterranean ports with more than 400 cabin passengers, she brought word of the birth of a daughter to Mrs. William Ross of Columbus, O., while the boat was being tossed by high seas on October 15. Five days later the child died and was buried at sea at midnight.

School Appropriation Is Received.

KAISER TURNING THOUGHTS TO WAR

Refers to Probable Hostilities in His Dresden and Berlin Speeches.

SOUNDS WARNING TO ARMY

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—Recent events apparently have turned the thoughts of Emperor William toward the probability of Germany soon becoming involved in war. His speeches at Dresden yesterday and in Berlin today contained pointed references to the probability of war and the necessity of being ready for it. Addressing the officers of a Saxon regiment at Dresden the emperor said:

"We live in a time when every young German capable of bearing arms must be ready to give himself to the Fatherland."

At a banquet given in his honor at Dresden last evening, the emperor, replying to the king's toast to his health, said:

"If the German empire continues to prosper, then we can calmly with raised vigor and with the courage of free German men, confront any one who should venture to cross our path or to disturb us in the promotion of our reasonable interests."

After unveiling the statue of Field Marshal Von Moltke today, his majesty addressed the highest army officers, who were assembled around him at a dinner, saying:

"How matters stand with us in the world, you have seen. Therefore keep your powder dry and your swords whetted."

UNDERTAKER DIES AT GRAVE.

Body Is Hauled Home in Hearse He Used in Conducting Funeral of Neighbor.

GREENVILLE, PA., Oct. 26.—Willie E. N. Howell, an undertaker of Kinsman, O., was conducting the funeral of Michael Phelan at the Roman Catholic cemetery here today he himself dropped dead and his body was carried back to Kinsman in the hearse which had borne the remains of Mr. Phelan to the cemetery.

The mourners were standing about the grave and the burial service was under way when Mr. Howell, who was subject to heart attacks, suddenly gasped and fell forward to the ground. A hurried examination revealed that the man was dead. He was a brother-in-law of C. C. Case, the hymn writer. He leaves a family at Kinsman.

STOPS ONE IMMIGRANT.

English Labor Agitator Kills Chinaman as Protest Against Alien Immigration.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 26.—The steamer Moana today brought news from Wellington, N. Z., of the murder of an old Chinaman by an English labor agitator named Lionel Terry, who lectured and worked in the United States, particularly on the Pacific coast.

Terry, before surrendering to the police, wrote to Lord Plunkett, governor of the colony, saying he killed the Chinaman as a protest against alien immigration. After a lecture upon the need for the purity of the Anglo-Saxon, Terry went to the Chinese quarter of Wellington and killed the first Chinese he met by shooting him.

WOMEN TO HAVE THEATER.

Chicago Club Members Will Run One Where Short Skirts, Ballets and "Johnnies" Will Be Unknown.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—The Chicago Women's club is to have a downtown theater where "pure drama" will take up the fight against indecent plays. An option had been secured on a downtown hall which will be remodeled into a pretty little playhouse, with a seating capacity of 800.

The ballet will be unknown on the club women's stage. Short gowns and French heels will be eliminated. The problem play will also be on the blacklist. Instead, the works of Browning, Ibsen, Zudermann, Bernard Shaw and Hauptmann will be exploited.

HARRIMAN TRAIN REACHES GOTHAM

Miss Alice Roosevelt Ends Her Long Trip and Will Go to Capital at Once.

LONGWORTH REMAINS MUM

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The E. H. Harriman special train, with Miss Alice Roosevelt on board, arrived in Jersey City over the Erie railroad tonight at 7:45 o'clock. Mr. Harriman and the members of his family left the train at Arden, N. Y., where his country place is located.

The only members of the original Taft party who came through on the train were Miss Roosevelt and her traveling companions, the Misses Boardman and McMillan, Congressman Gillett of New York and J. C. McKnight. Miss Roosevelt was driven directly to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, where she will spend the night, leaving for Washington at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, if sufficiently rested by that time.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26.—Congressman Nicholas Longworth, who has arrived home, will neither confirm nor deny the report of his engagement to Miss Alice Roosevelt, in whose company he has been touring the orient.

"Has there been any announcement of your engagement to the President's daughter?" he was asked.

"No," said he.

"But you don't deny Miss Alice has surrendered her heart to you and that you are engaged, do you?"

The Cincinnati congressman smiled. "I have nothing to say to that question," he replied, slowly and reluctantly. He laughed when asked about the incident on board the ship when he was reported to have sprang into a tank of water when Miss Alice dared him to follow. "It was just a newspaper yarn," said he.

Spends Benefactions at Races.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—For three years Mildred Curran, formerly an actress, has spent most of her mornings collecting money, amounting to $10,000, without authority, for the Wayside Home of Brooklyn and her afternoons in betting the cash at the races, according to her confession today in police court.

BOASTS HE IS A FIRE BRAND

Homer L. Castle Unmasks Himself at Little Washington.

BECOMING FRETFUL

Froths and Snarls and Declares He Is Something of an Anarchist.

SILENT ABOUT PRUDENTIAL

Special Telegram From
WALTER J. CHRISTY, Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 26.—"I am a fire brand," Homer L. Castle told his audience here tonight. Those who looked at him might have thought he was a mad dog. Then he admitted he was something of an anarchist. He barked, frothed and snarled a little harder tonight than on any other occasion during this campaign. With it all he did not find time to mention his connection with the wrecked Prudential Trust Company of Pittsburgh. He was a director in the concern. He admits he was of the "dummy" variety, for some reason he will not discuss the matter on the stump.

Castle's liver seems to be out of order. He is fretful and cranky. There were times tonight when he was "pouring himself out" when he would distort his pretty boyish face until he resembled a mad mongrel canine snapping at the heels of men. He did nothing but snarl. Castle is worried. He is afraid of what the future has in store for him and is running wild. His governor no longer governs.

Some Reckless Slashing.

The meeting was held in City hall. There was a good sized audience present. In the crowd were Congressman E. F. Acheson and many other Republicans. They were in attendance out of curiosity. While Castle did not know it, he made some statements tonight which will be discomforting to the enemies of Acheson. The congressman is amused and awaiting developments. Castle tried to shape his speech to injure the regular Republicans, but when a man slashes like the director of the wrecked Prudential, he is likely to say things which he hoped he wouldn't say.

Castle again attacked Secretary of the Commonwealth McAfee. His statements were slanderous and made with all the maliciousness that the speaker could call to his command. Congressman Acheson said it was one of the most unwarranted attacks he had ever heard uttered.

The nearest approach to Castle mentioning the wrecked Prudential of which he was a director was when he told tonight of having had for several years a box in a safety deposit vault in which he kept some certificates of stock which have "gone up the spout."

Even His Own Rooters Revolted.

His attack on Senator Penrose tonight was so vile that even the reporters who are rooting for his madhouse balked at sending it out. Castle announces that he will speak under the auspices of the Democratic party in Philadelphia next Thursday night. He had an engagement in Altoona for tomorrow night, but it has been cancelled. He is not hunting opportunities to speak.

The contest in Washington county this fall is being conducted entirely on local lines. The state treasurership is not being brought into the campaign. Congressman Acheson says the entire Republican county ticket will be elected by a good majority. He expects that Plummer will run along with the balance of the ticket. Mr. Acheson is chairman of the Republican county committee this time, and is in close touch with the situation.

Madame Nordica to Marry.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Mme. Lillian Nordica will soon become the bride of Capt. Joseph R. De La Mar, the wealthy owner of the Idaho silver mine that bears his name.

STOPS SPEECH TO AVOID PANIC

President Abandons Platform Before Tremendous Audience.

ON BOAT FOR HOME

Mr. Roosevelt Bids Goodby to New Orleans After Thunderous Ovation.

WILL BE AT SEA FOUR DAYS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 26.—At the end of nine strenuous hours of varied entertainment in New Orleans, closing a pleasant trip through the south, President Roosevelt at 6:30 o'clock tonight boarded the lighthouse tender Magnolia and began his return journey to Washington.

No newspaper representative accompanied the President on the boat, and he will be out of touch with the world throughout the night, but daylight tomorrow is expected to bring news of his successful transfer to the armored cruiser West Virginia, which lies at anchor off the mouth of the Mississippi river, to receive him, and carry him on toward the capital. For four days the President will be off American soil, but by wireless telegraphy, it is promised, he will be in communication with the shore.

The President's stay in New Orleans was made a testimonial of popular esteem and of grateful recognition for the service which he rendered to the city in its struggle against yellow fever. The densely crowded streets, the elaborate decorations, the wild applause that greeted the President along the route of the parade, the enthusiasm with which his address to the multitude in Lafayette square was received and the remarkable demonstration in his honor at the luncheon made the day replete with cordial welcome to the nation's executive head.

Gives Up Attempt to Speak.

The President was compelled to abandon one public address before he had got well started on it. It was contemplated that the military and civic parade should pass in review before the President at the city hall, but the crowd which gathered at this point was so tremendous that neither the police nor the troops were able to move it, and the President, foreseeing a possible panic, finally gave up the attempt to speak and left the platform.

When the President decided to abandon his effort he shouted to the throng to go home and be good citizens and then disappeared into the mayor's parlors, well-nigh exhausted. He said that the reception was the greatest that he had had since he started on his trip.

The demonstration at the luncheon was scarcely less exuberant. When the President entered the superbly decorated dining hall the 625 banqueters rose and gave way to frantic cheers. Every reference of Gov. Blanchard, Mayor Behrman and President Sanders of the Progressive union to the guest brought forth a perfect storm of cheering, and when the President rose he had great difficulty in speaking. Every thought heralded was the signal for an extraordinary exhibition of enthusiasm, and as his speech dealt almost entirely with local subjects and had special reference to the fight against yellow fever, the banquet developed into unceasing laudation of the President while he was on his feet.

An immense crowd packed Gravier and St. Charles streets as the dinner ended, and the appearance of the President on the way to the river provoked thunderous applause. As the Magnolia left the landing a presidential salute was fired, while the din of hundreds of steam whistles mingled with the lusty cheering of acres of people who had collected on the wharf.

Saw No Yellow Fever.

From the moment of his arrival early in the forenoon until he said farewell from the deck of the Magnolia at night the President was constantly in the lime-

SENATOR DICK IS OPTIMISTIC

REDOUBLE EFFORTS

Secretary Shaw Informs Speakers Committee He Will Give Them Another Date.

TROLLEY A CAMPAIGN FEATURE

Special Telegram From
L. W. STRAYER, Staff Correspondent.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 26.—An air of confidence permeates Republican state headquarters here, and every member of the staff, from Senator Dick, state chairman, and Secretary John R. Malloy down, thoroughly believes the outcome of this remarkable campaign will be the re-election of Gov. Herrick. This confidence is growing deeper as the fight nears an end.

Although there is an entirely new alignment of forces in this campaign and, as Gen. Grosvenor remarks, it is quite "inscrutable," yet the indications all point to a victory for the Republican ticket. Senator Dick was asked today for an estimate on the majority this fall. He declined to go into figures at this time, but promised in a few days to give his annual ante-election prediction, an estimate that for the years he has been chairman has always been more than vindicated by the results. At present Senator Dick's force is busy gathering reports upon which this estimate is based from all the county chairmen. When the reports are complete Senator Dick will look them over and make his deductions.

Although the Republicans feel certain they have the fight won, nevertheless they are putting forth every effort to make the result doubly sure. The speakers' bureau, in charge of Julius Whiting, has every speaker booked to November 4, when the campaign closes. Today word was received from Secretary of the Treasury Shaw that he would give the committee another date. He has been booked for Columbus, November 2, to speak with Gov. Herrick. Tomorrow night he will speak at Portsmouth and the following evening at Youngstown. He will close the campaign at Cleveland, November 4.

Foraker Cancels Dates.

Senator Foraker, owing to ill-health, has been obliged to cancel his dates at Mt. Vernon and at Somerset, November 1 and 2. He holds on to his engagements at Findlay, November 3, and Toledo, November 4, in the hope he will be able to fill them. The speakers' bureau, however, fears he will not be able to keep them. In reply to a message from Gov. Herrick sympathizing with him in his illness, Senator Foraker says he hopes his health will be such he can get out next week and help in the finishing work of the campaign.

The Democratic state committee has completed its itinerary for Gov. Joseph Folk of Missouri. It has been necessary to curtail the original plans very materially. The speech at Toledo has been cut out and it has been decided to leave out all the short addresses from the tail end of the train.

Gov. Folk will make but four speeches in Ohio. The first will be at Springfield, November 2, in the afternoon. In the evening he will speak at Cincinnati. From there he will go to Akron, November 3, just long enough to deliver a 30-minute speech, then on to Cleveland, where he will speak in the evening. As soon as he has finished his Cleveland speech he will board a sleeper and start for his home.

For some reason Mr. Folk has not shown any great degree of enthusiasm over this tour, and proposes to leave Ohio at the earliest possible moment. The Democratic state committee is rather disappointed in the matter, as it was intended to scatter Mr. Folk over a great deal of Ohio territory and use him as its star attraction.

Trolley as Campaign Feature.

A novel feature of this contest is that for the first time the trolley has been used for campaigning. Gov. Herrick has already made such a trip, and he has several others scheduled. The longest one is that on which he will start from Cleveland, November 2. He will cover 100 miles by 5 o'clock in the evening, making 14 speeches, ranging in length from 10 to 40 minutes. He travels with his party on a special car, which is transferred from one line to another, enabling them to go through from Cleveland to Alliance, where the evening meeting is held, without change.

Ohio is covered with a network of suburban trolley roads, which makes campaigning in this way possible. Another trip for which the governor is scheduled is that from Cleveland to Toledo, when he will make an equal number of speeches, but will not cover so much territory.

As an indication of the interest that has been aroused in this gubernatorial fight, it is estimated that when the campaign closes on the night of November 4 there will have been held 1,500 Republican meetings at which speeches have been made. It is probable the Democrats will nearly equal this record.

The Auditorium, the largest assembly hall in the city, was filled this evening by people who came to hear a discussion of the issues by Republican orators. Senator Foraker was to have been the principal speaker, but he was prevented by illness from being present. He sent a telegram urging his friends to stand by the ticket this fall.

A Word for Veterans.

Senator Charles Dick, General J. Warren Keifer of Springfield, former speaker of the house of representatives, Hon. Emmet Tompkins, were the speakers. All of them confined themselves almost exclusively to state issues and defended the administration of Governor Herrick. A large number of veterans of the civil war were present, and Senator Dick, in lauding their services, said it was time a partial payment should be made on

ONE OF MR. ROOSEVELT'S JACKSONVILLE AUDIENCES

MR. M'AFEE WILL EXAMINE BONDS

Board of Revenue Commissioners Has Supervision Over State Deposits.

TO PROTECT PUBLIC FUNDS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
HARRISBURG, Oct. 26.

Measures for the protection of the public funds in the suspended Enterprise National bank of Allegheny and other state depositories were taken by Robert McAfee soon after he became president of the board of revenue commissioners by virtue of his appointment as secretary of the commonwealth by Gov. Pennypacker last July. For the purpose of determining the rights of the commissioners with regard to placing of the state's surplus in financial institutions, Mr. McAfee asked Attorney General Carson for an opinion, which was furnished by that official one month ago and was made public today for the first time.

The effect of this opinion, which was given out by Mr. McAfee after consultation with Gov. Pennypacker and the attorney general, is certain to result in a thorough investigation by the commission of the bonds and securities furnished by the holders of the surplus in the general fund and the sinking fund of the state treasury. The opinion is also sure to result in a strict compliance by the state treasurer with the law relative to the selection of the state depositories.

Mr. McAfee is president of the board of revenue commissioners and during the short time he has held the office there has been no new depositories selected by the state treasurer. His fellow commissioners are Auditor General Snyder and State Treasurer Mathues. The attorney general's opinion is in part as follows:

I am satisfied that the powers of approval of the action of the state treasurer in selecting depositories of state funds and in securing said deposits by bonds, accompanied by sureties as conferred upon the board of revenue commissioners, are ample and specific, and inasmuch as the first section of the act of the 24th of May, 1878, under which the board was constituted, empowers a meeting of the board as often as may be deemed necessary by a majority of its members, that it is perfectly competent for the present board or a majority of its members to ascertain the present status in regard to all the state banks and other institutions which are depositories of the state funds, supply any omissions of approval that may appear to be lacking (if such be the case) or act de novo where such action appears necessary because of present deposits or because of running open accounts which are being from time to time augmented as funds are withdrawn, and it may therefore be deemed an active account.

I am of opinion that the action of the state treasurer in designating the bank in Dauphin county, two banks in Philadelphia county and two banks in Allegheny county, to be known as active banks in which shall be deposited a sufficient amount of the daily receipts to transact the current business of the commonwealth, is equally subject to the approval of the board of revenue commissioners as the selection of any other depository of state funds.

Mr. McAfee left here this afternoon for his home in Allegheny. When he returns here Monday, it is expected he will call a meeting of the board of revenue commissioners to discuss the attorney general's opinion and to decide whether it is necessary to immediately make a thorough examination of the securities on file in the treasury to protect the public funds in the state depositories.

BAPTISTS OUT IN FORCE.

Many Delegates Attend Session of Pittsburgh Association in Peter's Creek Church.

More than 200 delegates from 83 Sunday schools attended the fall session of the Pittsburgh Baptist association at the Peter's Creek Baptist church, in Library yesterday. Nearly 700 persons found room in the quaint old church. Morning, afternoon and evening sessions were well attended. The convention in the morning was presided over by F. E. McNeil, president of the association.

The Rev. Dr. O. P. Gifford, pastor of the Delaware Avenue church, Buffalo, preached twice, taking as his subjects themes on the child. An address was also made by the Rev. Z. Clark Martin, E. T. Yourison, chairman of the children's day committee, read an encouraging report on the children's day held last June. The Rev. F. U. Kohler preached the sermon in the evening, and H. E. Carmack talked on "Teachers' Training." Charles A. Ittel was appointed chairman on the children's day committee for 1906.

CASTLE WILL GO TO THE QUAKER CITY

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—City party managers tonight announced they had arranged to have H. L. Castle here next week for a "one-night stand." William H. Berry also comes next week, but whether these two "cards" will be played in the same game has not been decided. Judge Gordon regards Castle's presence here as really necessary.

Long-distance bank wrecking sentiment is difficult to maintain, so Castle is to be given a local rehearsal.

There is a rumor to the effect that Berry will be asked to cancel his date here. There is a minority sentiment of conservatism in the "reform" party and it is opposed to having Berry speak here, believing he will make votes for the Republican ticket. This sentiment is not based so much on the Prohibition or free trade predilection of Mr. Berry as it is upon reckless charges against financial institutions. His assertion last night at Lancaster that "every bank in Pittsburgh is under suspicion," is regarded as a dangerous utterance, one likely to lead to a "run" upon any bank regardless of its strength and soundness.

OCEAN INTELLIGENCE.

CLARK DESTROYS MUCH EVIDENCE

Judge Oldham Says This Is Causing Delay in Completion of Receiver's Report.

BOOKS IN VERY BAD SHAPE

Prior to the morning of October 18, when he killed himself, Cashier T. Lee Clark of the Enterprise National bank of Allegheny destroyed a volume of papers and accounts that would have told the entire history of his financial operations.

The books of the insolvent institution are found to be in such confusion that they are a despair to the expert accountants working on them.

The bank as a financial institution is in very bad shape. This is so apparent that predictions concerning its permanent insolvency or its possible opening are not trustworthy at this time.

This epitomizes what was announced yesterday by Judge F. F. Oldham of Washington, D. C., who got into the investigation yesterday after being ordered here by Comptroller W. B. Ridgley.

Furthermore, the problems to be solved in connection with missing paper and the clearing up of the muddled condition of the books and the outstanding paper have set the investigators a task that Judge Oldham declares will consume a lot of time and will likely delay the completion of Receiver Cunningham's report for several weeks.

Cashier Clark's Unique Methods.

In so far as the examination has gone it has shown that the closing of the Enterprise bank is under conditions in no way similar to those that have come under the observation of the United States authorities in any past examination of an insolvent banking institution. The methods of Cashier Clark were unique, and his death and the destruction of tangible evidence of his transactions have established a line of work seldom encountered in the history of national banks.

Progress with the books and accounts necessarily will be slow and tedious, and when the report is finally made to the comptroller of the currency, there is great reason for the belief that much will not be known even then of how Clark juggled figures and played with accounts to cover his secret financial practices. That he was guilty of this is demonstrated in his last report to the comptroller of the currency. That showed $150,000 in rediscounts, while in one Pittsburgh bank $300,000 of such paper was found.

Judge Oldham spent almost the whole day in the directors' room of the Enterprise bank going over books and papers with Receiver Cunningham.

Special Examiner Arrives.

Special Examiner E. P. Moxey arrived from Chicago early yesterday morning and went directly to the bank. He remained there all day and last evening. He is acting for the department of justice, and will make his report to United States District Attorney John W. Dunkle. The latter will keep in daily communication with Attorney General Moody at Washington and from the latter will get his instructions. When Judge Oldham left the bank last evening he said:

"I was sent here to represent the comptroller of the currency. No; it is not customary for me to be sent to any national bank that has been declared insolvent. This is not an ordinary case. There are features in this affair usually lacking in insolvent institutions. There seems to be no doubt that Cashier Clark destroyed much of the evidence that would uncover his financial schemes. Had Clark been living or had he not destroyed the papers, this examination could have been made with greater expedience."

"Is the Enterprise bank in bad condition, do you think?" was asked.

"It's in pretty bad shape."

Books Were Bady Kept.

Judge Oldham said he would express no opinion as to the possibility of the bank opening again. He was asked if it would be possible for Cashier Clark to carry on the financial operations with which he is charged without the knowledge of any of the directors or those working on the books of the bank.

"He might do a great deal without the knowledge of the directors. The books have been very badly kept."

"I do not expect to be kept long here," said Judge Oldham. "My report is made directly to Comptroller Ridgley. What I have learned I cannot make public as I am answerable to the comptroller only."

District Attorney Dunkle said last night that should any criminal proceedings be started they will be similar to those against Cassie L. Chadwick—that of charging an outsider with criminal conspiracy with an officer of the bank.

Attorney Thomas P. Trimble now has associated with him as counsel for the Enterprise bank directors William B. Rogers, city solicitor of Pittsburgh. Mr. Rogers says he is waiting for information to be furnished by Receiver Cunningham.

May Effect a Settlement.

Attorney John Marron, who had prepared to file a bill in equity for one of his clients who is said to have lost 171 shares of Crucible Steel stock by one of Clark's re-discounting operations, did not go into court yesterday. Mr. Marron intimated that arrangements were under way to have the affair settled out of court and that such a course was perfectly agreeable to him and his client.

Adam Hoffman, John A. McCafferty and John K. Seibert were appointed appraisers of the assets of the Allegheny Mattress & Spring Bed Company, of which Charles P. Trimble is receiver and T. Lee Clark formerly president.

Coroner Joseph G. Armstrong decided yesterday to accept the offer of an evening paper to assist him in serving subpoenas on a number of persons named by the paper. On all persons named living in the county the coroner will serve subpoenas through his deputies, but any subpoenas to be served on persons living outside the county he will turn over to the newspaper. Under the law the coroner has control of no funds for serving subpoenas or paying fees to witnesses from outside the county.

A report gained currency yesterday that Cashier Clark was not dead, that funeral services were held over a casket containing a dummy and that Dun's Mercantile agency was investigating the rumor. The contradictions were prompt and emphatic. A. B. Wigley, local manager for R. G. Dun & Co., said:

"There is absolutely no truth in the report that we are investigating such a rumor. When Mr. Clark died we reported that fact to our clients, and there our interest in him ended."

Dr. W. W. McCleary of Lincoln avenue, Bellevue, the physician called to attend the cashier, said:

"I reached Mr. Clark about 8 a. m., a few minutes after he shot himself, and stayed with him until the end, about 2:30 p. m. There is no doubt about him being dead."

Deputy Coroner George Ambos went to the Clark residence when the office was notified of the suicide. He said last night:

"I saw the dead body of Mr. Clark, with a bullet hole in the forehead. I secured the proof of identification from the widow. The rumor is absurd.

WOMEN CELEBRATE HALLOWEEN IN SOHO SETTLEMENT HOUSE

Guests at the Halloween Festivities.

Halloween was celebrated yesterday afternoon in the Soho Settlement house. It was the first of the women's fortnightly meetings this fall, and the rooms were filled with women, some of them with little children clinging to their dresses and others accompanied by older daughters. With the shades lowered and the rooms lighted with candles inserted in huge yellow pumpkins, with grinning features fantastically cut out, the women recalled the pranks and weird ceremonies of Halloween observed when they were girls, many of them coming from foreign countries. Mrs. James C. Dick told of many of the distinctive Scotch customs, her talk being supplemented by the guests with anecdotes from Ireland and other lands. Mrs. Jane A. Hall was in charge of the meeting and gave a short talk. Branches covered with autumn leaves were placed upon the walls, and grains were combined upon tables and mantel, while huge jack-o'-lanterns chrysanthemums and dainty cosmos, with fruits, apples and nuts added to the novel and effective display. Little jack-o'-lanterns filled with candies were carried away by the guests as souvenirs of the afternoon. The music was an especially enjoyable feature, Mrs. John Darr of Wilkinsburg singing a number of songs, while piano solos were given by Mrs. Carolyn White. After tea had been served all had their pictures taken. These women's meetings will be held every other Thursday throughout the fall and winter and on the intervening Thursdays meetings for the young girls of the neighborhood will be conducted. These will be largely social in character, and special entertainment will be arranged at the holiday seasons.

TAFT AND SHONTS WORKING IN HARMONY

Col. Edwards Denies Friction Rumors Relative to Building Panama Canal.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The reports that there is any friction between Secretary Taft and Chairman Shonts of the Panama canal relative to the construction of the canal was today officially denied by Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs.

"The stories which have been somewhat frequently and extensively circulated of late are entirely without foundation and have nothing to give them substance," said Col. Edwards. "The relations between the secretary and Mr. Shonts are most cordial. They are working together in harmony for the best interests of the government. Both the secretary and Chairman Shonts are interested in building the right kind of a canal, in building it as quickly as possible, and are now working together in order that the construction will go ahead with all possible speed."

Secretary Taft and party will leave for Panama tomorrow. The purpose of the secretary's trip is to fully acquaint himself with the details of the work and the climatic conditions of the country.

SENATOR DICK OPTIMISTIC

the debt the country owes them, by placing every survivor of the war on the pension rolls. He said that as a senator of the United States he stood ready to vote for such a measure.

In discussing the cry of Coxism, Senator Dick said that in all the years that he had been connected with the management of Ohio campaigns, George P. Cox of Cincinnati had never attempted to dictate as to the conduct of campaigns, had never insisted on the nomination of any candidate, had not tried to say what should go into the platform and had not in any way attempted to rule the affairs of the party.

As to the state organization, Dick denied there was a Republican machine in Ohio. He admitted there was necessary organization, but he said that at the close of each campaign the voting lists and the date secured are laid away until the opening of the next campaign. They had never, he said, been used by anyone for personal or selfish purposes.

"There is not now any doubt as to the result of this contest," said Senator Dick. "Governor Herrick practically has his certificate of re-election. What he merits and ought to have is a majority that shall go beyond what you gave him two years ago. We can't even afford to have it said that majorities sagged here in Ohio."

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—"It must have been a bombshell in the organization camp," said Congressman Nicholas Longworth, just arrived from the orient and learning the news of Secretary of War Taft's speech at Akron.

"I have not read it yet and of course would not care to discuss it until I have done so, but I am very much surprised. Why it—" but the congressman stopped short and said he would probably give out a statement later.

BURNS RESULT IN THE DEATHS OF THREE WOMEN

Lena Williams and Susie Smith Victims of Scott Street Fire—Lamp Explosion Proves Fatal.

Leonard Peters, a third victim lies at Passavant hospital in a serious condition from burns he received. MOORE WINS THE CUP.

CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—The $500 studebaker challenge cup fell permanently into the hands of James Hobart Moore by the awards at the horse show late this afternoon. For the second consecutive year his stables, in the opinion of judges, produced the best animals in class 29 (harness horse shown in brougham).

Reginald Vanderbilt scored a double victory over the Moore stable in the try-out class 28, harness horses, taking first and second prizes with Dr. Selwonk and Amazement, while Harold H., the Moore entry, took only third.

CANADIAN TEACHERS ARE GUESTS OF CITY

Party of 287 Arrive to Make a Thorough Study of Pittsburgh Schools.

To the 287 Canadian teachers who reached Pittsburgh over the Pennsylvania from Buffalo last evening a vociferous welcome was extended by fully as many Pittsburgh teachers. The train was a couple of hours late, the party arriving after 7 o'clock, but the Pittsburgh welcomers stayed close to the station until the guests of the board of education had come.

The party went direct to the Fort Pitt hotel, where all are quartered for their Pittsburgh stay. Today they will go in delegations of five on a trip which will reach every school in Pittsburgh. Tomorrow they plan to visit the Heinz and Westinghouse establishments and on Sunday visits will be paid to several other industrial plants.

The party is headed by Dr. James L. Hughes, director of the Toronto schools, who is well known in Pittsburgh through his connection with the Allegheny County Teachers' institute. The trip of the teachers has already included Buffalo, Detroit, Ottawa and Toronto.

The teachers will be entertained at luncheon at 5 p. m. tomorrow at McCreery's by the Canadian society of Pittsburgh. The society will also attend the reception given to the teachers by the board of education at the Fort Pitt hotel this evening.

STOPS TO AVOID A PANIC

light. The crowded program gave him no opportunity for rest. But he expressed keen enjoyment in his visit. Nowhere did the President see the slightest evidence of the existence of yellow fever, but he saw on every hand immense gatherings of cordial and contented people.

In the course of his speech at the luncheon the President said:

One thing that, as President of this country, I won't do, is to make a bluff that I can't make good. I don't intend on behalf of the nation to take any position until I have carefully thought out whether that position will be advantageous to the nation, but if I take it I am going to keep it, and I am going to keep it no matter what outsider goes the other way.

And I am sure that you, gentlemen, know it has been an utter mistake to think of me as a man desirous of seeing this nation quarrelsome; this nation eager to get into trouble. I have no respect either for the nation or for the individual that brawls; that invites trouble; and I want to see this nation do as the individual men in the nation who would respect themselves should do scrupulously regardful of the rights of others and honestly endeavoring to avoid all cause of difficulty. But I want on behalf of this nation the peace that comes, not to the coward who cringes for it, but the peace of the just man armed who asks it as a right.

SAYS THE PRESIDENT IS WITH WEAVER

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—In a mass meeting tonight, opened with prayer and interspersed with old-time songs, Charles Emory Smith said that, after an hour's conversation with President Roosevelt he was convinced Mr. Roosevelt was heart and soul with the Weaver reform movement. Mayor Weaver was present.

CLAIMS COMMISSION FOR BELLEVUE STREET PAVING

Moundsville Girl Claims to Have Earned It Through Knowing Bellevue Councilman.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

MOUNDSVILLE, W. VA., Oct. 26.—Letters from David Carlin, member of council at Bellevue, Allegheny county, Pa., formed an important part of the testimony in the suit brought by Miss Lizzie Davis to recover $100 from Higgins & Hirst, which was tried tonight before Justice of the Peace Jefferson, who reserved his decision.

Miss Davis asks that amount for services alleged to have been rendered in aiding the defendant firm to secure paying contracts for upward of $10,000 from the Bellevue council. The testimony showed that when the plaintiff received a letter from Mr. Carlin inquiring about the standing of Higgins & Hirst, she turned it to her advantage by entering into an agreement with the contracting firm by which she was to receive $100 if the contracts were landed.

The firm got none of the contracts then, but subsequently secured contracts, and the defense was that the agreement was not binding as to the contracts that were finally secured. Miss Davis read from 10 letters received from Carlin to show that he assisted her in getting the contracts from the Bellevue council. Portions of several letters, which she said were personal matters, contained endearing terms.

Mr. Carlin was communicated with by telephone this morning and stated that the story is entirely a mistake. He said he did not know Miss Davis and had never heard of her before.

Small Blaze in Greenfield.

A fire of unknown origin at 11 o'clock last night destroyed a vacant two-story frame dwelling at 329 Greenfield avenue, owned by L. T. Yoder, and damaged the two-story frame dwellings occupied by John Covne and Mrs. Mary Foster on either side of the building. The fire threatened to sweep the entire block of a dozen houses for a time until the arrival of the firemen. The loss is about $3,500.

RATE CONGRESS SPLITS IN TWO

FEELING IS GROWING TENSE

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Refusing to promise indorsement of President Roosevelt's policy for the regulation of railroad rates, about half of the 900 delegates to the interstate commerce law convention today were barred from the convention, and thereupon held a separate meeting to give expression to their ideas on rate legislation. The original convention was held in Steinway hall, while the "anti" convention met in Studebaker hall.

Alleged attempts to thwart the purpose of the convention caused the delegates at Steinway hall to refuse to admit delegates, although properly accredited, unless they would agree to support the President's rate plan. Many delegates objected to this procedure, demanding that they be given the right of free speech. The other delegates charged the so-called "antis" were sent by the railroads and other alleged unfair interests to pack the convention. A number of exciting scenes followed before the two meetings were called to order.

Following the plan decided upon an executive committee, no delegates had been admitted to the convention except those who subscribed to what the officers of the organization called "the creed and articles of faith."

Pledge That Caused Split.

We, the undersigned delegates, for ourselves and for the association or organization which we represent, indorse the principle of the foregoing call for the interstate commerce law convention and indorse and agree to support the legislation as outlined in the President's last annual message to congress, to so amend the interstate commerce law that the interstate commerce commission shall be given the power where a given rate has been challenged, and after full hearing found to have been unlawful, to prescribe what shall be the lawful and proper rate to take its place; the ruling of the commission to take effect immediately.

The Buffalo delegation of the Parry element, headed by F. H. Mason, secretary of the chamber of commerce, was the first to ask for admittance. One by one they refused to sign the pledge. When the last man had been refused admittance by the doorkeeper, the Parry party went in a body to Studebaker hall, where many other delegates had assembled for a so-called "anti" convention.

The regular convention in Steinway hall, numbering 500 delegates, elected W. E. Hughes of Colorado, chairman. In his speech of acceptance he said:

This (the President's proposal) is what the people who are present want, and what we shall earnestly and persistently demand. We want to draft and pass strong resolutions upon the subject, to appoint committees from every state to get right after the senators from their respective states with the proceedings of this meeting. If they are with the President, we want to know it; if they are with the corporations we want to know it.

A resolution introduced by J. W. Kern of Indianapolis was adopted. It says in part:

The delegates to this convention are here in session, enthusiastic in their support of President Roosevelt's declared policy, and do not propose to make any alliance or compromise with the enemies of the people.

The convention then adjourned until tomorrow morning, when resolutions in support of the President's rate policy will be adopted.

Antis Also "Resolute."

N. W. McCloud of Pennsylvania was elected chairman of the "antis" convention. The roll call of delegates whose credentials were accepted showed that 435 were in attendance. When the Pennsylvania delegation was called some surprise was caused among the delegates when it was learned that A. P. Burchfield of Pittsburgh was in attendance at the rival convention, having signed the pledge offered him at the door.

Before adjournment, the following resolutions were laid before the "antis" and referred to their committee on resolutions:

Be it Resolved, That the convention convey to Theodore Roosevelt its appreciation of his good intention and object in attempting to secure equitable and satisfactory solutions of all contentions between the people and our greatest promoters and developers of the country, the railway corporations, and so far as is consistent with our construction of the constitution we will do our utmost to support him. But we express to him our intelligent and patriotic apprehension that any radical changes in our methods of control might greatly jar and disturb the matchless growth, prosperity and progress which our great country is now enjoying.

Death of John Loughry Awl.

John Loughry Awl, aged 76, a retired steel manufacturer of this city, died last night at 9:15 o'clock, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. S. Flannery, 147 Hazelwood avenue. Mr. Awl was a son of Dr. William M. Awl, one of the most noted physicians of Ohio, and the founder of the asylum for the insane, deaf and dumb at Columbus, O., and was also secretary of state under President Garfield. Mr. Awl came to this city 55 years ago to work for W. M. Lyons of the Schoen-Lyons Steel Company and became manager of the mill. He then became purchasing agent of the Allegheny Valley railroad. Later he became a stockholder in the Monongahela Incline Company, of which he was made secretary-treasurer and superintendent, retiring about nine years ago. Mr. Awl was a member of old St. Peter's Episcopal church, of which he was a vestryman for many years. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Mary Rogers, and by four children, Mrs. Flannery, Woodward Awl, of the Crucible Steel Company; Harry Awl of the Carnegie Steel Company, and A. F. Awl of Hot Springs, Ark.

Crowd Attends Organ Recital.

There was a large attendance at the six hundred and eightieth organ recital given at Allegheny Carnegie Music hall by City Organist Caspar P. Koch last night. Mr. Koch was assisted by Mrs. Coral Adele Sweeney, soprano, and S. P. Holliday, baritone. A subscription recital will be given next Thursday evening at the music hall, under the patronage of J. Walter Hay. The Schubert club will participate.

Did Not Enter Academy.

The announcement that Miss Pearl Hurley of Connellsville, who married Frank H. Heller, steward of the Gallatin hotel, Uniontown, was a student at Mt. Aloysius academy, Cresson, is denied by the authorities of that institution. The wedding was a surprise to the friends of the bride. It was believed she had gone to Mt. Aloysius to take a post-graduate course in music, but instead she had gone to Philadelphia, where she was married.

The court of inquiry appointed to hear the charges against Captain H. B. Oursler of the Fourteenth Regiment, N. G. P., in the armory of the regiment last night postponed its decision until next week. Only one witness was heard and the testimony in the case appears to be in favor of the defendant.

REPUBLICANS TO INDORSE JEROME

They Will Put His Name on Their Ticket in Place of Flammer.

CLEVELAND FOR M'CLELLAN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—With only one dissenting voice, and acting under a legal opinion rendered by Joseph H. Choate, the executive committee of the Republican county committee late today decided to reconvene the New York county convention tomorrow night in Murray Hill Lyceum, the call for the convention carrying with it the recommendation that William Travers Jerome be nominated as district attorney, to fill the vacancy created yesterday by the resignation of Charles A. Flammer, who in retiring from the ticket, advised his followers to vote for Mr. Jerome.

Mr. Choate advised the executive committee that tomorrow was the latest date upon which the change could be effected.

The committee, which almost unanimously voted for Mr. Jerome today, opposed his nomination by 27 votes to 8 when his name was suggested for the Republican ticket a few weeks ago, and during the committee meeting today a number of speeches were made in condemnation of Mr. Jerome, but the only voice raised in opposition to the course determined on by the committee was that of Abraham Gruber, an assembly district leader, who declared his constituents would not vote for Mr. Jerome.

Following the convention, steps will be taken immediately to have the courts order Mr. Jerome's name placed in the Republican column, as well as independently, upon the official ballot.

Cleveland for McClellan.

Former President Grover Cleveland has announced his support of George B. McClellan for mayor, and sounds a summons for all men who own fealty to the Democratic party. He takes this step in a letter to the mayor, in which he urges every voter who has the well-being of New York at heart, to vote for the re-election of Mr. McClellan.

That Mr. Cleveland considers the situation fraught with grave dangers is clearly apparent. He sounds a warning against the specious, the false and alluring things held before the eyes of the voter to beguile him into ways full of doubt, if not disaster. And it is actually not a warning against Tammany corruption, but an arraignment of what the former president considers infinitely worse. Mr. Cleveland writes:

Princeton, October 23, 1905.

My Dear Mayor McClellan:

Not being a resident of New York city, I am not sure I ought to concern myself with its municipal politics. I find it impossible, however, to outgrow my interest in all that affects the welfare and fair name of the city of my former residence, or to forget the kindness and consideration of my former neighbors. If this were not my condition of mind I hardly think my personal friendship for you, nor my attachment for the party you represent or even my absolute confidence in your fidelity in public place, could move me to make any explanation touching the pending municipal canvass.

Plea for Sobriety.

I confess to a feeling of astonishment when I see the evidences of rank hysteria parading a canvass which should especially be characterized by sober thoughtfulness. Questions of the most far-reaching import seem to be pressed upon the city's voters, not so much as subjects demanding their serious reflection and thorough information, as subjects furnishing opportunity for appeals to passion and misinformation, cunningly intended to aid personal ambitions and unworthy purposes.

There are conditions just now prevailing which naturally suggest this as a favorable time for demagogic manipulation of the people; and nowhere are those conditions so inviting to those who are willing to be demagogues as in the city of New York.

Every man who thinks must know the opportunity thus offered to play upon the unusually aroused popular prejudices, resentments and passions has not been overlooked, and that the constant stimulation of these things contributes to the chief stock in trade of some of those who are bidding for the people's support. Every thinking man must also appreciate the fact there are principles and theories underlying the present municipal canvass, which vitally concern the city's future life.

In these circumstances, how plainly it is the duty of every voter who has the welfare of your great municipality at heart to avert the danger threatened by rash notion, or by the neglect of a good citizen's duty to strive against the tide of demagogic misrepresentation. It is because I believe you are looking in this direction of dutiful citizenship and possess the steadiness and honest conservatism the city needs, that I earnestly hope for your election.

Waynesburg Girls Take Great Overland Trip to Save the Life of a Sister.

TRINIDAD, COL., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—After a trip overland half way across the territory of New Mexico, in search of health, the Misses Lizzie, Mattie and Hallie Anderson of Waynesburg, Pa., found only death awaiting the latter.

With her sisters she started for New Mexico six months ago. In Trinidad they left the train, bought a team and camping outfit and set out to drive across country to Albuquerque. They traveled slowly, selecting the most favorable camping spots, and for a time the sufferer seemed to mend, but toward the end of the journey, as they were nearing Albuquerque, she began to fail, and the end came suddenly.

E. P. Roberts & Sons, Leading Jewelers.

Pittsburgh's foremost Jewelry Establishment

The growth and development of Pittsburgh calls for wider fields of action. The Jewelry house of

for over a half century past has been in the vanguard with every important change. Old paths have long ago become too narrow, as this house has gone forward to greater things.

Its name is a "household word," not only in the immediate city, but even beyond the borders of Greater Pittsburgh.

Today with its immense stocks of Rich Jewelry, Precious Stones, Silver and Glasswares, and works of art, it is as truly "The Foremost Jewelry House" as it was when its doors first opened.

DEMORALIZATION IN THE PAYROLL

Talebearing to Bosses Has Upset Work of Organization and Estranged Friends.

CORRECT ALIAS OF F. X. BARR

The Citizens party's leaders are having their own troubles with the payroll. Jealousy, bickerings and tale-bearing are disrupting whatever esprit de corps the various departmental employes ever had. The worst of it is that the bureau chiefs and department heads are suspected by their underlings of encouraging tale-bearing, and just now some of the hitherto best friends in the city employ are inclined to be suspicious of one another.

When the Citizens plan of campaign was devised it was declared that every man on the payroll ought to be used to help make up the organization, and every man was directed to work personally for the ticket. Certain tasks were allotted, such as getting voters in certain districts into line, organizing ward associations, securing the adherence of certain doubtful persons all over the city. Results were wanted by the leaders, but the results that became apparent after a while were not to their liking.

It was found that the doubtful voters who were to get into line had come out openly for the Republican ticket; that the ward organizations had comparatively few members, as proved by the small attendances at meetings that, in fact, instead of enthusiasm there was lassitude instead of activity.

So men were called into the mayor's office, the public safety building, the offices of most of the bureaus of the department of public works, and they were held to blame for the showing. They in turn accused their fellow workers either of treachery or laziness or both, and the accused, when taken to task, turned the tables on their accusers and charged them with treason. It was "save himself who can" from the wrath of the bosses, and the air was thick with mutual crimination and recrimination.

Of course, the names of the mutual informers were not given to those interested, with the result that there is demoralization in all the departments, for no man knows but that his desk mate, or his friend on the adjoining beat, or the man who sleeps in the cot next to him at the fire engine house is one of those who have accused him of negligence in the duty of whooping it up for the Citizens party. This has had its effect of inducing still more dereliction, for this feeling has permeated the entire payroll, that no matter what efforts a man may make for party success he will be misrepresented at headquarters.

BIG GATHERINGS GIVE LIE TO THE CITIZENS

Great Crowds Are Expected at Republican Meetings on the South Side and in McKeesport.

Republicans are confident that the two meetings to be held this evening and tomorrow evening, one in the South Side Turner hall, the other in McKeesport, will prove, by the attendance of voters, how unfounded are the hints thrown out by Citizens-Democratic orators who are claiming everything and charging lack of interest among Republicans.

John Bradley, chairman of the ward committees on the South Side, said yesterday that if everybody attends the meeting tonight who has indicated his intention of coming, the hall will not hold all the people. He therefore advises everyone that the speaking will begin promptly at 8 p. m. Hampton L. Carson, attorney general of the state, will be the speaker of the evening. He will arrive in Pittsburgh today and his speech tonight will be the only address he will make during this campaign.

The mass meeting in the auditorium, McKeesport, tomorrow night, will be held under the auspices of the Allied Republican clubs of Allegheny county. The speakers will be J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia; Congressmen A. J. Barchfeld, John Dalzell, and A. J. Edwards, president of the state league of Republican clubs.

In addition to the South Side mass meeting the following Republican gatherings will be held tonight: John Dalzell club rooms, Seventeenth ward, Congressman James F. Burke, Irvin K. Campbell, Franklin P. Booth, John P. Hunter and George J. Churchill; Franklin school, Seventh ward, A. J. Edwards, William J. Metcalf, Franklin P. Booth and Capt. John A. Reed; Beltzhoover school, Thirty-eighth ward, John F. Cox, J. E. Hindman and M. Hoke Gottschall.

TICKET IS SUSTAINED

Straight Republicans of Chester County Score a Victory in the State Supreme Court.

Chief Justice Mitchell of the supreme court yesterday upheld the methods of the straight Republican leaders in Chester county, when he handed down a decision reversing the Chester county court and deciding that the nominees of the Republican party in Chester county are entitled to a place on the official ballot. A dissenting opinion was filed by Justices Mestrezat and Potter. This means that the Republican ticket as nominated in Chester county stands, and that attacks by candidates of other parties will not be sanctioned by the courts.

The chief justice in his opinion says the crucial question is the regularity of the county committee that filed the certificate of nomination objected to. After quoting the rules, the court declares the finding of the lower court of Chester county that the term of the committee elected on March 16, 1904, expired on March 16, 1905, is erroneous. The year for which the committee was elected, the court states, was not a calendar year, but a political year, which might be more or less than 12 calendar months.

LOUBET SEES BULL FIGHT.

The President of France Attends a National Exhibition in Spain, Against His Wishes.

MADRID, Oct. 26.—President Loubet left Madrid for Lisbon today. The president did not desire to attend the bull fight, but owing to the national character of the event he went to the fight with King Alphonso. He departed after the first bull had been killed.

The ministerial crisis is augmented owing to the peculiar attitude of the friends of the minister of marine, Senor Villaneva, who objects to President Loubet bestowing the grand cross of the Order of the Legion of Honor on him after he has conferred the grand collar, higher decoration, on the minister of war, Gen. Weyler.

Charter for New Oil Company.

A charter was issued at Charleston, W. Va., yesterday, to the Pearce Petroleum Company of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of operating for oil and gas in the Roane county (W. Va.) field. The capital stock is $50,000. The incorporators, all of whom are Pittsburghers, are Arthur E. Pearce, Homer N. Young, W. T. Grant, L. F. Cotter and Robert Miller.

Sore Throat Don'ts

When the children have sore throat, don't blister their necks with lamp oil. Don't torture them with a foul smelling piece of fat meat, wrapped about the neck. Don't imagine there is medical virtue in an old sock or piece of red flannel. Don't believe in antiquated superstitions.

A sore throat is a serious matter and is not to be healed by such make-believe remedies. The use of such methods is simply putting the patient to needless torture. Use a little sore throat wisdom and give them TONSILINE and the throat will heal quickly.

SWIFT'S AGENT FINED FOR VIOLATING THE LAW

With Two Grocers He Supplies Adulterated Food to League Island Navy Yard.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—The case of Burt & Dennis, grocers, and Frederick Hall, local manager for Swift & Co., charged with furnishing impure food to the League island navy yard, came up today before Judge McMichael. John F. Burles and William H. Dennis, trading as Burt & Dennis, were charged with supplying oleomargarine to the navy yard as a substitute for butter. They pleaded guilty and were fined $250 and costs and sentenced to 60 days in the county prison.

The charge against Hall was that of furnishing to the contractor who supplied the station, sausage containing a preservative injurious to health. It was admitted that the specimen of sausage analyzed by Prof. C. B. Cochran was sold to the navy yard by Swift & Co. Expert testimony was taken to show that boric acid is injurious to health. Hall was fined $100, the cost of prosecution and expense of the analysis.

OETTING'S ACME BRAND

The little stores' $2.50 hats and the big stores' $2 ones are the same in quality as our Acme $1.75 hats, but the styles are better in the Oetting hat stores.

I am in the hat business—I don't sell anything but hats, so you may reasonably expect the best service in my stores.

The man with $1.75 or $2.25 to invest is shown every courtesy that we accord our $4 and $3 customers.

I repeat "I am in the hat business," and that means that we have finer and costlier hats than most stores dare show, for instance, our Knapp-Felt De Luxe derbies at $6.

You will find here the aristocratic Silk and Opera hats at $7, $6 and $5, and the plain derby or soft hats at $1.

Luxurious Seal caps at $18, and the laboring man's cap at 50c.

Swell Auto caps at $5 and $4, and the humble shop cap for a dime.

This is a hat store in its broadest sense, where you can get any sort of a hat or cap, suitable for any occasion, at any price.

15 YEARS OF TORTURE

Itching and Painful Sores Covered Head and Body.

CURED IN WEEK BY CUTICURA

"For fifteen years my scalp and forehead was one mass of scabs, and my body was covered with sores. Words cannot express how I suffered from the itching and pain. I had given up hope when a friend told me to get Cuticura. After bathing with Cuticura Soap and applying Cuticura Ointment for three days, my head was as clear as ever, and to my surprise and joy, one cake of soap and one box of ointment made a complete cure in one week. Great Good News for Mothers.

Infants' Coats for One-Third Less.

THE sizes are for little children of 1, 2 and 3 years. We cannot recall the time we secured a lot of goods that gave us as much delight as these coats. They constitute a manufacturers' sample line, and when it comes to exhibiting juvenile garb the manufacturer puts his very best work on the lines selected for samples.

These pretty little coats are made of fine to finest cloths and velvet, and the trimmings are varied, among them black astrakhan cloth, velvet and braid. There is a fine range of colors, including navy, brown, red, hunter's green and light tan. The coats will be ready tomorrow morning, Infants' Department, second floor, East, at these underprices:

Brown Furs and Black Furs.

EVERY fur that is given us by fur-bearing animals is to be found here. That is a number one feature of this fur department. Every style of fur piece in what is known as small furs is to be found here, as is every style of fur coat. That's another pleasing feature of this fur department. And the third, and perhaps the most important, is the fact that all furs are sold here for less prices.

This morning we want the attention of women to our collection of black furs and brown furs, either of which is very fashionable.

Black Furs—

Black Lynx, one of the richest furs, and one of the most fashionable in the animal kingdom, is much liked because it conforms to the throat and shoulder better than any other. It is almost without weight, and is a beautiful glossy black. Neckpieces, $35.00, $45.00, $65.00, $75.00. Muffs, $30.00.

Black Fox is a very rich fur, and indeed, is preferred by many women. Handsome Neckpieces of this black fur at $20.00, $30.00 and up to $45.00.

Astrakhan is an inexpensive fur, and at the same time a very rich-looking fur. Neckpieces of astrakhan at $8.50, $10.00, $16.50 and up to $30.00. Astrakhan Muffs at $25.00.

Persian Lamb, of course, is the most popular fur today, with the exception of its aristocratic relative, broadtail. We have neckpieces of this elegant fur at $12.00, $16.50, $20.00 and up to $55.00. Muffs at $15.00, $18.00 and up to $40.00.

Broadtail, or, as some call it, Breitzschwantz, is a very fine grade of Persian baby lamb. We have neckpieces at $50.00 and up to $85.00; Muffs at $45.00 and up to $85.00.

Brown Furs—

Mink Neckpieces at $35.00, $40.00, $45.00, $50.00 and by easy steps up to $200.00. Muffs, $45.00, $60.00 and up to $150.00.

Tweed and Whipcord Covert Coats for Women.

We chose the best styles we could think of to have the $18.00 whipcord made up into—a style which would unite the best points of several coats, while keeping the mannish character. Accordingly they are full three-quarter long and there is half-fitted back, double-breasted, straight front and pockets. There is a satin lining through shoulders and sleeves.

Covert Coats—

A specially good sort, which is perfectly tailored, in seven-eighths length, loose full sleeves with turnback cuffs. $25.00. Other coverts at $15.00 to $30.00. Lined to waist.

At this time we do not intend to go into detail, but we ask every one interested to glance over some of our late importations of an inexpensive character.

Deserved honors were showered upon Gen. Booth of the Salvation Army at London yesterday. A notable distinction was the conferring of the freedom of the city. When one remembers the ridicule and harsh criticism that were heaped upon this great organization but a few years ago, before its present world-wide proportions were attained, the contrast afforded by yesterday's honors is striking. No city in the world has benefited more from the operations of the Salvation Army than has London.

It has been pertinently pointed out by our sprightly contemporary, the Titusville Herald, that no foundation exists for the latest campaign charge that school funds have been willfully withheld. The law prescribes a routine for these payments, which cannot be made prior to September 1. The state superintendent of schools is an important link in the machinery, he is a Democrat, and he is a man whose character is above reproach. The Democratic campaigners are simply "sloshing around," regardless of truth.

Foreign engineers who have inspected our railroads write to the Engineering Record in criticism of the track construction. They say while great improvements have been made in cars and locomotives, track construction has not kept pace with them, and they are surprised there are not more accidents on some roads which consider tie renewals an expensive luxury and delegate track work to a low grade of laborers without responsible supervision. The criticism, if justified, is an important one, calling for prompt action.

The fining and imprisonment of a prominent American in Paris for causing the death of a little girl with his automobile seems well deserved. American chauffeurs have acquired an unenviable notoriety on the continent for reckless disregard of the law. Touring parties, unable to resist the temptation offered by the perfect roads of France, tear along at a dangerous rate of speed. Americans have been responsible for numerous accidents of late and by their criminal carelessness have destroyed much of the pleasure of walking and driving on continental highways.

By a decision of the supreme court yesterday, Justice Potter and Mestrezat dissenting, the regular Republican ticket in Chester county is sustained. This ticket is known as the Eyre ticket, and is held to be regular because the certificate was signed by the officers of the county committee created according to the party rules in the county. The contention hinged on interpretation of the duration of a "political year," the majority of the court holding it to be from one organization to another, not necessarily coincident with a calendar year of just 12 months.

Senor Obarrio, Panama's former minister of war and marine, now in this country, denounces as absurd the stories concerning a possible union of his country with Costa Rica. The people of Panama know when they are well off and are especially satisfied to be taken under the protection of the United States in view of the prosperity which will follow the completion of the canal. All such stories may be set down as inspired by a desire on the part of Panama's neighbors which is not to be realized. Yet the consolidation of Central and South American states is to be desired under proper conditions.

Robert McAfee, secretary of the commonwealth, is moving for a complete investigation of the state monies on deposit, bonds for securing them and the like. This is a commendable business procedure on the part of the new secretary and is rendered particularly pertinent in view of the reckless charges made during this campaign. It is worth noting in this connection that, if Berry were treasurer now, he could not hand out state money to his own friends and backers, as they appear to think he could, for the state treasurer is but one of three members of the board of revenue commissioners.

Although the congressional committee which is investigating the cost of public printing has only just begun its work, testimony already presented indicates an immense saving can be effected annually by adopting a few reforms. It has been shown how $100,000 can be saved by abolishing the reserve of public documents held for binding subject to the order of senators and representatives. Duplication of copies of public documents sent to public libraries is another source of waste. Reformation in this bureau is in line with the wise spirit of business economy which seems to be inspiring all the departments at Washington.

Stolen Goods in Pockets.

Controller Larkin has made a feeble reply to the manifesto of the Orphans, to which organization he once had the honor to belong. He does not attempt to deny the truth of the charges preferred against the Democratic-Citizens organization, because that cannot be successfully done. The shameful record stands out with its own accusation, and one of the severest arraignments is in Mr. Larkin's own words. Mr. Larkin's only recourse is to say the Republican party is just as bad, but in doing so he fails utterly to specify the acts and the broken pledges he charges, as the Orphans do in their manifesto.

No one will attempt to deny abuses of power under former Republican administrations, but no man can truthfully assert these were in violation of platform pledges. Compensation for public franchises was never fixed as a principle of legislative or executive action prior to the adoption of the ripper act. The Bigelow-Verner-Hays combination, however, was given its lease of power upon the distinct promise to exact compensation for every public franchise. The seizure of franchises without compensation by its bosses has been more flagrant than any previous performances in that line and in addition there is the perfidy of violation of solemn pledges.

Neither Controller Larkin "nor any other man can restore confidence in the Citizens party while it has stolen goods in its pockets." Mr. Larkin's own words defy his best efforts in behalf of the faithless organization to which he has attached himself. He can do no more in that line than Director Clarke. Besides the failure to exact compensation for franchises there has been an utter failure to effect the economies promised by Mr. Larkin himself. The cost of administration has steadily increased, while the quality of public service has deteriorated at a more rapid rate. It is not true, even, that the county is in exceptionally good financial condition, for county commissioners and salary board have agreed they can let no more contracts and can pay no additional salaries, no matter how urgent, because there is no money available to pay for them.

There is just one way to rebuke the pledge breakers, the party of false pretenses, and that way is to vote the straight Republican ticket, the only ticket in the field nominated by the votes of the people.

A Lively Campaign.

The strenuous political campaign in New York is not deficient in happenings that are out of the ordinary. Two leading features that strike the funny bone of the non-participating observer are the popular reliance placed upon the straw vote as an indication of the successful candidates and the prominent part which is being taken by the women, who have no votes. Casual reference was made yesterday to the polling of a prayer meeting by the enthusiastic conductors of a straw vote. Apparently this is no uncommon occurrence. The straw vote fiends are busy, day and night, on trains, street cars, in hotel lobbies, in business offices and even in churches. At a fashionable wedding the other night there were 10 ushers and an investigation of their political preferences showed that seven will vote for the Republican candidate for mayor. A business man complains he is unable to eat his noonday luncheon in peace, since he is constantly interrupted by total strangers who are polling the restaurant. The significance of the straw vote, as commonly conducted, has been greatly exaggerated.

Managers of one of the candidates for mayor of the metropolis conceived the bright idea of making a special appeal to the wives of voters, the real power behind the throne. Dainty fans and other souvenirs bearing the candidate's picture were distributed among married women whose names were in the "blue book," with the request that they assert their authority and have some "say" as to which way the home shall vote. The covert compliment was not lost upon a good many of the recipients and they turned in to do electioneering work among those of their friends who possessed husbands. Managers of other candidates learned of the scheme and extended it to include not only wives, but sweethearts, whose influence over a susceptible class of voters is believed to be most potent. It is refreshing to have the asperities of an exciting campaign thus softened by the addition of a little humor.

A Terrifying Prospect.

It would be difficult to exaggerate the gravity of the situation in European Russia. The strikes, which began with the railroad workers, have spread to almost every branch of industry. Famine is staring in the face the people of the cities and winter is coming on. The pinch of hunger is already driving mobs to looting and scenes of disorder are frequent. It is but a step farther until the whole region from the Baltic to the Black sea may be aflame.

When the disturbances began in St. Petersburg last January there was reason to anticipate revolution. Despite repeated assurances from the bureaucracy that order would soon be restored, the czar and his advisers gave proof of a more accurate interpretation of the unrest by reluctantly granting a limited assembly. The trouble was the halting czar did not go far enough. Rather than make a peaceful revolution in the form of his government, he temporized on half measures. He hoped to avert revolution and took the risk of bringing on a bloody insurrection.

It is reported now the czar proposes to grant a constitution similar to that of Germany. This step is probably taken on the counsel of Sergius Witte, recently nominated premier. It may be too late. Had the czar stood by M. Witte at an earlier day, rebuffed the grand ducal clique and ordered a revolution in the form of government to a limited monarchy, all would have been well. From the beginning a revolution was inevitable. By delaying, by temporizing, by vacillating, the Russian emperor has endangered his throne as well as his autocracy, and has probably brought on his unhappy empire a reign of terror, suffering and confusion.

Turning on the Light.

In one local paper that has been particularly active in giving currency to baseless rumors, there appeared yesterday a letter from an alleged stockholder in the Enterprise National bank. The burden of it was that some paper has been trying to "hush the matter up," whereas this alleged stockholder desires the agitation to go on. The Gazette is not aware that any newspaper has tried, or advocated "hushing." The Gazette has appealed to all in interest to turn on the light and let the public know the whole truth. The paper that printed the alleged stockholder's letter—and several others—have even magnified the scandal by printing, without pretense of verification, every sensational rumor suggested by the idle or the vicious. It is this sort of discussion, and this sort only, that has been objected to by the business public. The objection stands and gains force as one by one the senseless and sensational fabrications are retired.

Another of the sensational tribe stated yesterday "all doubts as to a thorough and unsparing investigation" have been dissipated. There were no such doubts in the mind of any honest and intelligent man. The investigation, "thorough and unsparing" had begun before Cashier Clark rashly took his own life, and it has been proceeding in the regular manner in which the national government handles such matters, ever since. The only doubts that have arisen have been as to the possible truth of reckless charges made by irresponsible persons.

Another of the sensational tribe has been rebuked by its more sensational contemporary quoted above for printing an alleged interview that "contradicts itself," interlarded with comment to give sensational color to the whole. There is cause for public gratification at this time that this whole sensational tribe has gone into confusion and that the statements of all its members are no longer given credence.

Yet another matter needs a word of explanation—the reported complaint of bank officers that Receiver Cunningham was withholding information from them. It is on a par with the previously reported assertion that they were not aware they were individually bonded to secure the state deposits. If any officer or director has ever said these things—The Gazette can hardly believe they have—they have simply shown remarkable ignorance of the law as it applies to their business. The state law requires such bonds. The receiver has no right to supply the bank officers and directors with information. He is the agent of the national government, placed there in the interest of the creditors of the bank to compel payment of their just claims to the extent that resources and fiduciary obligations will permit. Officers, directors and stockholders owe such obligations—officers and directors have additional responsibility. They permitted what they should not have permitted.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS ON WAYS OF WORLD

If You Don't Like Your Job Why Don't You Get Another?

By ERASMUS WILSON.

You don't have to stick to the job you have. But that doesn't mean that you won't have to stick to some sort of job in order to succeed in life, or even in living at all.

Was it not ordered that man should live by the sweat of his brow? Has that order ever been rescinded? Have you ever known any one to defy this order and still live?

You may think you have known some who lived without work, or that you can name some who are at this moment living in open defiance of that order.

You may know some who are existing without work or labor or toil, but are you quite certain that they are really living? Life, you know, means activity, development, progress.

How many of those who don't work because of their having been given a competence by some one who has worked, are active in good works, developing into good men, progressing toward good ends?

It is one thing to exist, and quite another to live. Stones, fossils and other inanimate things exist, while those that grow, develop higher forms, and benefit the world in some way, live.

Suppose you take another look at those whom you think are living without work and see if they are not either in the fossil class or among the things that are dying because they are of no practical use to the world.

And, while you are looking about, suppose you take note of those who don't work, either because they don't want to, or don't have to, and see if they are not dead ones, or soon will be.

After reaching maturity a man does not remain long in a passive state. He is either growing better or becoming worse, climbing up or sliding down. This is one of the sure enough things in this life. It is written everywhere that man shall live by the sweat of his brow.

While there are an endless variety of tastes, there is equally endless variety of work to be done, so that no matter what your taste or inclination may be you can find some work to do that will afford you a comfortable living.

If you are not satisfied to work at something that is useful and really profitable, you can enter the do-nothing class, and Satan will find something for you to do, and find it pretty quick, too.

Some refuse to work because others will be profited directly or indirectly by it, being so selfish and so piggish that they want all or nothing. And instead of willingly helping others to bear their loads over hard places, they cast their whole burdens on their fellow travelers and feel injured if they are not taken up cheerfully and borne along.

You may know some persons who are being carried along from day to day, and year to year, and that by those who have burdens of their own to carry. And if you know them well you have known them to growl and complain because they were not being carried more gently and by easier stages.

You may rest assured that you will have to work your way if you ever reach any place in this life that is worth while.

Your neighbor may pay your trolley fare, or some one with a pull, or a strong desire to rid the neighborhood of your presence, may get you a pass on the railroad. But what better off will you be then than now? You will be a tramp, and nothing more, and deserve nothing better.

"Without great labor there is no excellence" was a "copy" that could have been found in every "copybook" in any well-regulated school along before the war.

It was a good copy to set before boys and girls, and by copying so often it was etched into their lives, as it were. Nor can there be a doubt that many great men could have, or can yet for that matter, cited this "copy" as being responsible for their greatness, for it helped to reconcile them to their daily toil and labor.

In these times many of our young men are inclined to turn up their noses at honest work, or work that would secure to them an honest living, while at the same time they show great willingness to work, and even work harder, to acquire a dishonest living.

Queer, isn't it?

If you are really dissatisfied with your job you should look around and get one that accords more fully with your taste, for it doesn't pay well to work against the grain; besides it is hard on the workman, and the work is never satisfactory.

Being dissatisfied with a job, and not liking to work, are two very different things. A man may not like to work very well, and yet work quite contentedly, and with profit. Realizing that he must work in order to live, he selects a job that is agreeable, and sets to work as contentedly as possible.

While this man may not, and he hardly will, succeed as well as the one who puts heart into his work, and works with a will, and earnestly desires to accomplish something superior to what is usual in his line, he will do a lot better than the man who does not work contentedly.

And then much depends on the purpose for which you work. If you have no other purpose than to get money to spend for jim-crecks, picnics, and transient pleasures, you will hardly succeed in getting much beyond the point you are at now.

It is most important to have an object in view, or at least to have it in your heart, to make some progress in a right direction, even though it be but little.

There can be no doubt that many men have failed in life because they did not happen to get a job that suited them.

They were to blame some, but not altogether, for if they had been rightly taught and disciplined, and helped when boys, their tastes would have been so clearly defined that when they started out in the world for themselves they would have selected jobs more in accord with their tastes, and then work would have been more congenial, and correspondingly more profitable.

Parents are often greatly concerned about the future of their boys and girls, and have great trouble in choosing jobs for them.

It would be far better to let them choose for themselves, provided they had been properly taught and disciplined.

There are scores and scores of men in the professions who might have been successful in shops, or mines or fields, whereas they are failures where they are, and all because their parents thought they were too smart or too good to work with their hands.

Train a boy right and you may trust him to select a job for himself.

The Soldiers' Memorial.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

I saw in your paper a few mornings ago that Edward M. Bigelow, boss of the Citizens and Democratic party, is opposed to the Soldiers' Memorial hall, but would favor a shaft or a monument to the soldiers (in which he could get his long claws). Now let me say that if each soldier of Allegheny county who lost his life in the civil war were to have a shaft or a monument erected to his memory, the same, or half as good as he (Edward M. Bigelow) has in Schenley park (a disgrace to himself) Allegheny county could hardly furnish the territory upon which to set the monuments. So numerous were they—and the living will resent his insult by going to the polls on November 7 and record their votes for the Republican ticket—the party which has stood by them, and for them from beginning to end.

TELL DIME NOVEL TALE OF TRAVEL IN MOROCCO

American Man and Wife Penetrate Interior of Land Where Few Dare to Go.

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Back from Morocco with a stirring tale of how they hoodwinked the brigands of the northwest end of Africa, Mr. and Mrs. John Larkan, the former a lawyer, arrived here today in the steamer Princess Irene. Both Mr. and Mrs. Larken agreed today that the only thing that saved them from the brigands was the fact that they disguised themselves as Moors. Asked why they desired to penetrate the wild country lying between Tangier on the Atlantic and Tetuan on the Mediterranean, Mrs. Larken explained: "Tetuan was unknown to Europeans and I just wanted to go there for that reason." Then she added: "We went to the British and American consuls at Tangier to secure guides to take us over the mountain passes to Tetuan, but the two officials not only refused to get us guides, but forbade our going. They told us we would be killed if we attempted the trip. This did not frighten us, and we managed on October 12 to get the services of Maley Ali Ben Ald Essdam, a holy man, whom even the brigands reverence. The outlaws and the just alike think so much of the man that they kiss his feet.

"The holy man said that while he believed the wicked men of the mountains would not attack us while in his company, he thought it best for us to adopt Moorish costumes and dye our skins. This we did."

Jerome May Be on Real Ticket.

Following conferences held with Mr. Ivins, the Republican candidate for mayor, by Chairman Halpin of the Republican county committee, Edward Lauterbach and Senator Nathaniel A. Elsberg, it was given out that the plan of the Republicans was to have Mr. Jerome nominated by the Republican county convention tomorrow night. The conference took place in Mr. Ivins' headquarters in the Hotel Breslin, and a hurry call for a meeting of the Republican county executive committee at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Fifth Avenue hotel was sent out when it was concluded. At the meeting of the committee it was announced the proposition to nominate Mr. Jerome would be put before the district leaders.

Preparing to Receive Britons.

Preparations are already under way for the approaching visit of the British fleet to these waters. According to the plans of the harbor master the visiting fleet will be provided with an anchorage directly north of the ferry of the New Jersey & Hudson River Railway and Ferry Company on the New Jersey side of the river, and the American fleet, under command of Admiral Evans, will anchor directly south of the ferry entrance, so that the two fleets will be lined up in full view of the park on the Palisides. The warships will remain here from November 9 to November 17. A large number of small craft will be run to accommodate visitors wishing to board the ships of either fleet.

Becomes Horse of Many Colors.

A green black horse was responsible this afternoon for inflicting several cuts and bruises on the head and face of Louis Kahn, a road driver. The animal was the cause, also, of having Mr. Kahn's driver, Henry Oppsberg, taken to the J. Hood Wright hospital with a broken leg and several wounds. The horse, which was being driven to a rubber-tired runabout on Twelfth avenue at One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, took fright at sight of an automobile, and, dashing off, threw out both Kahn and his driver. The horse finished his run at One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street, where he dashed into a paint shop and took on some reds, yellows and other colors.

First Damages Against Subway.

A jury in Justice Dowling's part of the supreme court today returned a verdict of $25,000 in favor of Delia Glover against the Interborough Rapid Transit Company. Ralph Glover, the husband of the plaintiff, was a metal worker and while engaged in the completion of the subway station at Manhattan street was struck by a train and killed last February. His widow was the first to recover a judgment against the subway operating company.

Queen Will Surely Visit Us.

Francisco Paolo Finocchiaro, who painted the portrait of Archie Roosevelt, the President's son, and who arrived on the Princess Irene today, said he understood that the Dowager Queen Margherita's proposed automobile trip of the United States had not been abandoned, but merely postponed. C. H. O. Hartman, United States consul general in Honduras, and United States Senator Bacon of Georgia were also aboard the Princess Irene.

New Way to Get Out of Gotham.

The steamship Tagus, of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, arrived at this port from the West Indies today, inaugurating the new fortnightly service to New York. The Tagus on this trip brought 77 passengers. For her return trip to Havana, from which port she hails, on Saturday, nearly all the cabin accommodations have been engaged.

Mrs. Mackay Joins Tammany.

Much surprise was expressed today at the announcement that Mrs. Clarence Mackey and Mrs. Charles F. Murphy of Good Ground, L. I., wife of the Tammany Hall leader, are to be among those who will attend a political meeting in Carnegie hall Saturday night. The names of Mrs. Mackay and Mrs. Murphy are given among those whose presence will lend prestige to the occasion.

Activity Not Surprising.

It is not surprising that the Republicans of the county are becoming active and they resent the unjust attacks on the integrity and honor of the party, especially when it comes from some men whose records are not clean, and whose motives for making the attacks are not for the good of the county, but for their own private and political interests.—Washington Observer.

GENUINE-MOCHA IS A SCARCE ARTICLE

Output of the Coffee Remains the Same—Conditions Under Which It Is Raised.

Mocha coffee is the choicest raised article and the dearest in price, and Consul Masterson of Aden, Arabia, in his report to the state department will interest all lovers of the popular beverage and surprise many who imagine that all the coffee they purchase under the label "Mocha" is the genuine article. He explains the limitations upon the growth of Mocha and the care that is taken by the local authorities to prevent other coffees from being substituted and shipped from Aden as Mocha.

"I suppose," writes Mr. Marterson, "of all the many kinds of coffee grown the one and only kind of all that is unable to compete with other coffees is Mocha. No matter how much greater and better the facilities are for handling and putting coffee on the market than in the past, or how much more the growers may know about the best way of raising coffee, the output of Mocha remains the same, or even less, as the years go by, and until a complete revolution comes about in the way this crop is raised, handled and marketed the output will remain the same or grow gradually less.

"In favored countries where coffee plantations are extensive, the labor cheap and all kinds of mechanical appliances are used for hulling, cleaning, sorting and packing, the prices are gradually growing less each year, and more coffee is coming into the market also by reason of these appliances and facilities, and as the output increases in other countries the output of Mocha coffee gradually lessens.

"As Mocha coffee is now produced it is now about as cheap in the market as it can well be sold, and anyone who is at all familiar with the coffee market knows that the price of Mocha coffee has varied less than any other coffee within the past ten years, and that even if the price of other coffees has gradually grown less and less, the value of Mocha has not dropped in proportion because, until conditions change, it is now as low as it can be.

Raised by the Arabs.

"Unlike the raising of coffee in other countries where we can, without much difficulty, know all about each crop, how much it will likely yield, and the condition of each growing crop the raising of Mocha coffee is done by Arabs out in the mountainous country of Arabia where no white man has ever been, and statisticians and crop forecasters are unknown. There are no extensive plantations out there as we know of them in other places, but each Arab has his own few bushes around his little house, and raises enough coffee for his own use and a little for trading for other commodities. It thus becomes a difficult and slow process to collect from hundreds of people enough to load a caravan. The markets of Aden and Hodeida are several hundred miles from where the coffee is grown, and the journey to these markets takes several weeks.

"In passing through the different districts under control of some native sheik or Turkish official this coffee is always subject to a levy or toll or tariff from each official. Then, when it finally reaches the seaport market, the process of finally arranging it for shipment is a slow and expensive one. It is always brought in unhulled or just as it was picked from the plant. It is first hulled by passing it between two millstones turned by hand; then it is winnowed and sorted by Indian women, each grain being carefully looked over and all of the uneven or indifferent grains being taken out. Then it is ready for packing and shipping. Anyone can see that coffee raised, handled and marketed in such a fashion can never compete with coffee raised under more favorable conditions, and it further can be seen that Mocha coffee is bound to be of a higher price and that prices are also bound to remain stationary as long as such conditions prevail.

Protection Against Imposition.

"The export of Mocha coffee from Aden for the last ten years has fluctuated in the output, but it has gradually dwindled with an occasional recovery in some years; but, as will be seen, the output for the year 1895-96 was considerably greater than for the year 1904-5. The great falling off for the past year is easy explainable, as the bubonic plague was very bad here and many small caravans were stopped on this account. This also explains the small export for the year 1900-1901, as there was also plague here during that year. There are two other causes that have contributed to the small export the last year, namely, the war between the Arabs and Turks in the Yemen, and a famine has also prevailed there during that time.

"France has, with the exception of one year (1898-99), led the importing of Mocha coffee, with the United States in the second place, followed by the United Kingdom and Germany in the order mentioned. The local government and the Aden chamber of commerce have taken the necessary precautions for protecting the coffee merchants in this place in their business, and no outside coffee is allowed to be transhipped from here, nor in any manner is coffee allowed to be shipped from this port as Mocha, unless it is the genuine article. If there is any adulterating, blending or mixing, it is done after it leaves this port."

Shaw's Fling at Irving.

Of course the irrepressible Bernard Shaw has but a poor opinion of the late Sir Henry Irving, and of course he is out with an article expressing the opinion. The chance of saying that Sir Henry was "a narrow-minded egotist, who was devoid of culture, and who lived in a dream of culture, and greatness," offered too extensive possibilities as an advertising vehicle for him to overlook it. That he means what he says, few will doubt, for Sir Henry Irving was one of many who dared believe Shakespeare was greater than Shaw is, a view diametrically opposed to Shaw's.—Louisville Courier Journal.

STORIES FOUND IN THE LOBBIES

Interesting Happenings Concerning the People Who Are Traveling.

"Is it true that Grover Cleveland is coming through here tonight?" this was a question that was heard on every hand last night at the Union station. The word that the ex-President was coming had spread over the city and there were not a few people who were on hands to greet his train and cheer. But the former President didn't appear and there was nobody to cheer. This is the whole story of the arrival of the ex-President's train. The special car, Rocket, slipped quietly into the station and among the station employes there were none who seemed to know that the man who had spent eight years in the White House was there.

The Longest Coke Works.

George L. Freas, the well-known hardware dealer of Punxsutawney, dropped into Pittsburgh yesterday and told of the magnitude of the coke works in his town. "Connellsville is regarded as the greatest coke town in the country," he said, "but if the public knew it, the prize goes to Punxsutawney. We have a coke plant that extends more than a mile and a half in length. Visitors from all parts of the country fall into the habit of calling the Pennsylvania the 'scenic line' of the world. These same people ought to travel our way. The "Punxsy" region would make them more than busy in taking in the sights. The longest oven in Connellsville does not cover more than half a mile. Think of the good time they could have in our region!"

The Man from Panama.

James L. Stewart, a civil engineer from Panama, went through Pittsburgh last night on the Pennsylvania limited. Mr. Stewart went to Panama last September and his experience in the tropics has not weakened his faith in Uncle Sam's administration. "The government has no end of knockers," he said, "but at the same time it must be said that great progress is being made in the isthmus. The best men of the country are being enlisted in the forces there, and with the additional implements employed, the canal is being rapidly forced to its completion."

Old-Time Legislators Meet.

J. H. Landis of Lancaster, superintendent of the Philadelphia mint, was in McKeesport yesterday. He spent the day with Capt. A. B. Campbell, whom he had not seen since they served together in the Pennsylvania legislature. Mr. Landis is here in connection with the Thaddeus Stevens school. It has been over 25 years since the two legislators have met, Mr. Landis then representing Lancaster county and Capt. Campbell one of the districts of Allegheny county.

Employing Old Weapons.

The reason the Altoona Times and other Democratic papers are making such desperate assaults upon the Republican party and its candidate for state treasurer lies upon the surface. It is the same that has actuated them in every campaign that has been waged since the party's organization. They want to elect their man and they imagine the only way to secure votes is to employ the weapons of vituperation and slander.—Altoona Tribune.

Not an Ordinary Piker.

Cunliffe, the express robber, who made such a dismal failure of his attempt, indignantly resents the imputation that he took the additional $1,000 with the $100,000 which he admits having stolen. One can hardly blame him. A thief who plays for high stakes even though he don't get away with the stuff, naturally objects to being classed with ordinary pikers.—Charleston (W. Va.) Mail.

Democracy Easy Prey.

Does it ever occur to the candid reader that if bossism reigned in Ohio, it was not likely to be dethroned by the advent of the Democratic party? If there is any tendency in politics for a political party to become the prey of bossism, it is very certain the Democratic party is not an exception to the rule. Experience shows that it falls into a subservience very easily.—Columbus State Journal.

Flagging the Tammany Train.

Tammany is getting worried over "the red flag." Its worry is misplaced. The red it sees on the banners and on the political horizon is merely a sign of danger to New York from Tammany domination. The people are flagging the Tammany train—that's all.—New York Tribune.

SANCTUARY.

Low at Thine altar, Lord most high,
I claim the ancient right
To lay my battered harness by
And trust Thy sacred might:
The foes, who follow on the track
My feet in fear have trod,
Hold from Thy silent threshold back;
Give Sanctuary, O God!

Wounded and weary to the death
I pass Thy temple doors;
Behind me murder pants for breath,
The hum of battle roars;
But where the peaceful candles shine
And drowsy censers nod,
Here in the stillness of Thy shrine
Give Sanctuary, O God!

Within the shelter of Thy walls
The tumult fades away;
The wonder of the Presence falls
About our hearts who pray;
Faint in the distance dies the din
Of legions iron shod;
From vengeance at the hoof of sin
Give Sanctuary, O God!

GRUBBS-BEATTY ROMANCE DEVELOPS NEW FEATURES

McKeesport Osteopath-Exhorter Would Have Wedded Girl When He Settled Wallace-Breitenreiter Suit by Uniting That Couple.

That the romance in which Dr. A. M. Grubbs, the 76-year-old osteopathic physician of McKeesport, and his 17-year-old wife, nee Miss Myrle Beatty, figure as principals is not the only famous case in which they have appeared, became known yesterday. Some months ago McKeesport was startled by Dr. W. W. Campbell of that city entering suit for $10,000 damages against Mrs. Rose Breitenreiter, a wealthy widow, alleging breach of promise to marry him. This case was terminated by the marriage of Dr. Campbell and Mrs. Breitenreiter at the latter's home in Fifth avenue, McKeesport, the ceremony being performed by Dr. Grubbs, who is a licensed exhorter of the Methodist Episcopal church and the only other witness was Miss Beatty. The former Miss Beatty said yesterday that Dr. Grubbs wanted her to be married to him at the time and both Dr. Campbell and Mrs. Breitenreiter urged her to consent to be one of the principals in a double wedding ceremony. She says she refused because she could not make up her mind.

Mrs. Grubbs also said yesterday that she is now hesitating about continuing the proceedings she had started to obtain a divorce from her husband of a week. At the home of her parents yesterday she said that she is afraid the trouble might cause Grubbs' mind to become unbalanced and she did not wish to be responsible for anything of that kind.

"I think I ought to live with him for a while at least," she said. "I don't know what it was made me run away with Dr. Grubbs, unless it was sympathy for him. He has had so much trouble and he seemed to want me so bad that I couldn't refuse when he asked me to go last Friday. He arranged to get me out of the house and we went straight to Youngstown where a cabman took us to the court house and then to the home of the preacher. The cabman witnessed the ceremony and signed his name to my marriage certificate. Dr. Grubbs said he had plenty of money and would be able to take care of me as I should be cared for, and if anything happened to him I would be Mrs. Grubbs and could do as I pleased. He also told me he could get me a place in society and that I would be respected by everybody as his wife. Other persons told me I ought to marry him, and although I knew my parents did not want me to do so, I decided it was best for me. I guess I made a mistake in running off, but now it is done and I don't want any further trouble over it. If I could see him and have another talk with him perhaps we could make arrangements that would be satisfactory to everybody, but they won't let me go to him."

Dr. Grubbs is determined to gain possession of his wife. He thinks he could do this by prayer and persuasion if he only had a fair chance. The girls' parents are just as determined that he shall not have the chance and are now investigating the wedding in the hope of finding a flaw in the ceremony by which it would be rendered null. Dr. Grubbs sent some friends to see his wife and they reported to him that a conciliation could be effected. He said yesterday:

"Myrle still loves me and if I could have but half an hour with her I know she would be mine. Prayer would reveal to her the proper course to pursue. I first met Myrle last July a year ago when I was called to attend her mother. She interested me very much and expressed a desire to belong to some church. I asked her to go with me to the Coursin Street Methodist Episcopal church and I made her a member of my Sunday school class. One Sunday she looked up into my face and said: "Oh I am so happy, and you have done so much for me." Right then I read her love and it was then that I asked her to marry me. She put the thought into my head first. She consented to marry me then, but other persons interfered and the marriage was postponed. We will be happy together yet."

CUNLIFFE SAYS HE IS GUILTY OF LARCENY

He Appears in Criminal Court to Enter Plea and Is Remanded for Sentence.

Edward G. Cunliffe, who was arrested in Bridgeport, Conn., after disappearing with $101,000 from the Wood street office of the Adams Express company early this month, yesterday entered a plea of guilty before Judge Macfarlane in criminal court. Cunliffe was not represented by counsel, and Judge Macfarlane asked him if he knew what it meant to plead guilty. Cunliffe said he did, and was remanded to jail to await sentence. He will probably be sentenced on Saturday.

Cunliffe since being brought back to Pittsburgh has been indicted on two charges of larceny and has been a prisoner at the jail. He told Chief County Detective Robinson he wanted to plead guilty on both charges and throw himself on the mercy of the court. The express company and the Pinkerton Detective agency were not represented in court and Cunliffe's action was a surprise to the prosecutors and the court officials.

STEVENSON INSISTS.

Says He Knows That a Scheme for Liberty Street Elevated Railway Is Afoot.

W. H. Stevenson still adheres to his declaration that the city administration intends to have councils pass an ordinance permitting an elevated railroad to be erected in Liberty street by a syndicate, which is in turn to turn the franchise over to the Pennsylvania railroad. Mr. Stevenson insists in spite of the denials of everybody concerned.

"Of course they will deny it," said Mr. Stevenson yesterday. "Did not Director Bigelow deny all knowledge of the boulevard steal? Did not Mayor Hays deny all knowledge although it was afterward shown that the conferences preliminary to shoving the ordinances through were held in the mayor's office? Of course they will deny this latest fact, but I know that such an undertaking is under way."

HUCKSTERS ATTACK HOUSE.

John Creese Is Shot in Leg After Kicking Door In.

Because he refused to buy produce from two hucksters, Peter Surlich, aged 20, of 18 Island avenue, Allegheny, alleges the men tried to force their way into his house, and he shot one of them [illegible] leg. The hucksters called at the Surlich house about 6:30 o'clock yesterday evening and when Surlich refused to buy their produce he alleged one of the men kicked in his door.

Surlich ran back into the house and secured a revolver and threatened to shoot them unless they left. The men again attacked the door and Surlich fired. The shooting attracted an officer who placed Surlich under arrest and sent John Creese to St. John's General hospital. The man who was with Creese escaped.

WANT A PRETTY WARD.

Civic Club of the Sixth Will Consider Needed Improvements Tonight.

A meeting of the property holders and taxpayers of the Sixth ward will be held tonight in the Forbes school under the auspices of the Sixth Ward Civic club. The club has in hand the bettering of the water supply, the opening of Ann at Stevenson streets, a proposed terraced park in the Hardscrabble district and the improvement of Bluff street.

Among those invited and who are expected to be present are Mayor Hays, Select Councilman Peter Hermes, Common Councilman W. H. Finnerty and Representative Lawrence B. Cook, all of whom reside in the ward. There is no politics in the movement and a large crowd is expected to be present.

ALLEGHENY COUNCILS TO PROVIDE PENSION FUND

The committee on public safety of Allegheny councils last night ordered printed for councils an ordinance that provides for the setting aside of a certain sum of money each year to create a pension fund for employes of the public safety department. The plan is to allow $30 a year for each employe in the department and to retire employes on half pay at the end of 20 years' service. The measure compelling railroads to place safety gates at all grade crossings in the city was ordered printed.

ISSUES PROSPECTUS FOR MONTHLY ENTERTAINMENTS

The Young Men's Christian association has issued the prospectus of its members' course of monthly entertainments for the season of 1905-1906. The entertainments will be given at old city hall. The programs include vocal and instrumental concerts, with fine quartets and soloists, and recitations. In addition to these entertainments three others will be given at the association's hall, Seventh street and Penn avenue.

To Hold Annual Rally.

The annual rally of the Young Peoples branch of the missionary societies of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny presbyteries will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Arch street, Allegheny, tomorrow. Addresses will be made by returned missionaries, officers of the society and Synodical Secretary Mrs. J. F. Clokey.

MEN OF PROMINENCE PAY CITY BRIEF VISIT

Ex-President Cleveland, Paul Morton and J. P. Morgan Flit Through to the West.

Three men of international reputation spent a short time in Pittsburgh yesterday. Not one of them, however, had a word to say for Pittsburgh or to readers of Pittsburgh papers. They were ex-President Grover Cleveland, Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life, and J. Pierpont Morgan, the financier.

Messrs. Cleveland and Morton came into the city about 7:30 o'clock last evening in the private Pullman car, Rocket, and spent some time in the Pennsylvania terminal yard enjoying their dinner but refusing to "be disturbed." Accompanying them were Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Morton and Miss Morton. They went to Chicago at 8 o'clock and will go from there to Nebraska City, Neb., where a statue of the late J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture in President Cleveland's cabinet and father of Paul Morton, will be dedicated. Messrs. Cleveland and Morton will be the most prominent speakers at the dedicatory exercises.

From Nebraska City Mr. Morton and his family will return to Pittsburgh next Wednesday morning and will spend the day here. Mr. Morton will be given luncheon at the Duquesne club, will hold a reception in the Pittsburgh offices of the Equitable Life Assurance society in the Frick building in the afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock and will be the honor guest at a dinner to be given by Manager Edward A. Woods to the agents of the Pittsburgh district under his charge. In the afternoon at the Country club Mrs. Woods will give a luncheon for the wives of the agents, Mrs. Morton being the honor guest.

Mr. Morgan came into the city with President Charles Lanier of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railway Company, of which the Pennsylvania company is lessee. Mr. Lanier is making his annual inspection of the Ft. Wayne route. The inspection party usually consists of Mr. Lanier and a number of his friends of New York, and sometimes, as on this trip, the party includes Mr. Morgan, who is a personal friend of Mr. Lanier. There was said to be no special significance to the trip. The party traveled in a special train.

REMAINS WITH MATRON.

Police Will Look After Young Negress Until Her Mother Arrives from Lexington.

Mamie Kelly, the 16-year-old negro girl of Lexington, Ky., who was arrested on a charge of street walking on Wednesday night by Special Officer William McCready, was given permission yesterday by Director Harry Moore to remain in charge of the police matron until her mother arrives from Lexington this evening, when she will be sent to her home. The girl told Director Moore that she was brought from Lexington by "Cyndy" Lily a few days prior to the convention of the colored Knight of Pythias, and that the woman had promised to secure her a position that would pay her $6 a week. When she arrived here she said that she was taken to the Lily woman's house at 27 Ross street. After the girl had been in the house some time she and the Lily woman had trouble, the girl going to another house.

She alleges that the Lily woman would not give up her trunk and that she then went before Alderman Reilly and prefered charges of keeping a disorderly house, selling liquor without a license and selling liquor to minors against her. The charges were heard by Alderman Reilly on Monday. At that time he reserved his decision. Yesterday afternoon he gave his decision, holding the Lily woman for trial in court.

Accuse McKee of Several Thefts.

George McCombs McKee, aged 52, who claims to live at 32 Diamond street, was committed to jail on four charges of larceny yesterday. McKee was arrested on a charge of being a suspicious person, and was identified at No. 2 police station by Mrs. L. M. Neeley of 74 South Fourteenth street, F. C. Kline of 102 Allen avenue, John S. Dunker of 125 Maple avenue and Mrs. M. Simpson of 1320 Sycamore street, all of whom allege that McKee called at their homes to learn if their property was for sale and in every case took money and valuables from the houses.

Close of Season Ticket Sale.

The season ticket sale for the concerts of the Pittsburgh orchestra will close tomorrow night. There are nearly 1,000 seats to choose from at $20, $15 and $10 for the evening series, and more than that number of afternoon seats at $15, $10 and $5. There will be no season ticket sale after Monday morning, when the single seat sale for the opening concerts of November 2 and 4 begins.

General Assembly of the Phi Beta Pi Society Opens in Pittsburgh.

Gathered in Pittsburgh for the fourteenth annual general assembly of the Phi Beta Pi fraternity, the medical Greek letter organization, are some of the best-known men in the medical and surgical professions. Prominent in the number is Dr. Johann C. Koch, the discoverer of numerous bacilli, notably that of tuberculosis. Dr. Koch was formerly of Vienna, but is now connected with the University of Paris and represents Europe at the convention. Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, Philadelphia's noted nerve disease specialist and writer of American historical novels, is also prominent in the meeting. Dr. William Osler, regius professor of medicine in the University of Oxford, late of the Johns Hopkins university, sent by cablegram his regrets at being unable to attend. His office carries with it the duties of the chief physician to King Edward. Dr. Osler resigned also as supreme chancellor and he will be elected to the position of supreme archon to represent all Europe.

After a busy day the members of the convention spent last evening at the Alvin theater, about 300 delegates and their hosts of Pittsburgh and Allegheny county being present in a body. A feature of the evening was Miss Mary Marble's singing of a song by Dr. Joseph Jackson of Pittsburgh.

In the morning the first session was held. Professor C. S. Woods of the University of Indiana made an address on the needs of the fraternity. Dr. George B. Pray, the famous criminologist connected with the Michigan state penitentiary, spoke of the work of the supreme chapter of the fraternity. Dr. William T. English read an original poem on "The Vacant Chair," written in memory of Dr. J. D. Thomas of Pittsburgh, the founder of the fraternity. A number of reports were submitted by officers and committees. In the afternoon the party visited the Homestead steel works. Today's program includes, in addition to an executive meeting, a tour of Pittsburgh and a banquet in the evening at the Henry.

The Death Roll.

Capt. Clement P. Jayne.

Capt. Clement P. Jayne, aged 83, father of the Rev. John A. Jayne, pastor of the Observatory Hill Christian church, Allegheny, and one of the best known deep sea captains in New England, died at his home in Quincy, Mass., on Tuesday. Capt. Jayne had the distinction of taking the first steamship through the Suez canal. At the time of his death Capt. Jayne was superintendent of the Sailors' Snug Harbor. He was born in the seaside village of Hampden, Me., August 4, 1822, and began his ocean career before the mast, rising rapidly. During the gold fever in 1849 Capt. Jayne made many trips around the Horn as chief mate of the Eureka, the California, the Three Brothers and the Cohota. He engaged in the East India trade as captain of the Gamecock. When the Shanghai Steam Navigation Company, an American corporation doing business in China, needed an efficient and careful seaman to take a new sidewheel steamer, the Moning, from Scotland to a Chinese port, Capt. Jayne was selected, and arrived at the entrance to the Suez canal in May, 1869. At places the walls of the canal were only 83 feet wide, while the Moning was 85 feet in her beam. With the inventive genius of the American he rigged up a steam windlass and had his vessel pulled through, and after four days floated his vessel into the Suez harbor. Capt. Jayne is survived by three sons.

The school board of the O'Hara sub-district, of which Prof. McMahon was principal, closed the schools on Wednesday and they will not be opened until Monday. The board also passed resolutions of regret and directed the flag on the school house to be lowered to half-mast until after the funeral.

ONLY A SUGGESTION.

But It Has Proved of Interest and Value to Thousands.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be albuminous or flesh forming food, like eggs, beefsteak and cereals; in other words the kinds of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bills of fare.

But the trouble is that while we eat enough and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight; the digestive organs do not completely digest the food-forming beefsteak and eggs and similar wholesome food.

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs.

If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tablets contain the natural peptones and diastase which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to reach its natural tone and vigor.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of flesh forming food, meat, eggs, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up, strengthen and invigorate thin, dyspeptic men, women and children.

Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit as they contain no strong, irritating drugs, no cathartic nor any harmful ingredient.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most successful and most widely known of any remedy for stomach troubles because it is the most reasonable and scientific of modern medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by every druggist in the United States and Canada as well as in Great Britain, at 50 cents for complete treatment.

Nothing further is required to cure any stomach trouble or to make thin, nervous, dyspeptic people strong, plump and well.

When You Study the Matter Carefully You'll Be Surprised to Learn Just How Very Near to Downtown Is the Wonderful

2nd. WARD BROOKLINE

People do not realize at first thought how this remarkable location will give its population a longer day--more time between the ending of one day and the beginning of the next.

Stand in the center of the great Mt. Washington subway and you are no farther from the Second Ward of Brookline than you are from the Union Depot. What does this mean to the busy man who must get to his desk, counter or bench early and leave it at a late hour? It means that he saves time to the extent of half a month each year. It means, no doubt, a half month of happiness to his family. A half month of joy and rest for himself. Mental recreation. Precious to most men, especially to ambitious men who not infrequently wear away a percentage of their lives by "all work and no play."

You'll get some "play" if you live at Brookline. You'll be able to sit down for supper at an hour that will permit you to go out and enjoy the evening.

You'll be where you could drive miles over splendid roads and see landscape fascinating to the human eye.

You'll have paved and macadamized streets, granolithlic-stone sidewalks, city sewerage, city water, gas, electric lights — everything that you'd get in the East End.

Also two fast lines of trolleys that'll take you to and from town in twelve to fifteen minutes, according to where your destination is.

And, best of all, you'll have property that will continue to increase in value. No investor who can at all measure the future could be blind to this truth that stands out so unmistakably and convincingly.

Lots have building restrictions, run back to alleys, and range in price from

on terms of 5 per cent down and 2½ per cent monthly for balance, with no interest nor taxes for you to pay for two years.

To Visit the Great White City Take a Brookline Car Anywhere on Smithfield St.

The Brookline cars start on Liberty Avenue in front of the Union Depot and pass the B. & O. and P. & L. E. Depots.

DEMOCRATS SELECT NEW MAN TO ACT AS CHAIRMAN

Daniel J. Driscoll of St. Marys Will Serve on Account of Mr. Hall's Illness.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 26.—How to get out the Democratic vote for William H. Berry was the subject of a long conference between Colonel Guffey and his lieutenants this afternoon at the state headquarters here.

Members of the state committee from nearly every county in the state east of the Alleghenies were present, together with Mr. Berry, who pleaded with the committeemen to help him.

Reports were received from all the committeemen present, and it those can be relied upon then there is no hope for J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for treasurer. A summary of the reports give Berry 60,000 majority outside of Philadelphia. William J. Brennan, of Pittsburgh, who was present, reported that Plummer would have only 10,000 majority in Allegheny. Charles P. Donnelly, of Philadelphia, reported the City party would elect its ticket in that city and that thousands of Citylites would vote for Berry.

Owing to illness, State Chairman Hall was detained at his home in Ridgway. Daniel J. Driscoll of St. Marys, was elected vice chairman to assist in the conduct of the state canvass.

A secret meeting of the state executive committee was held at the close of the conference. Guffey has called a meeting of the Democratic committeemen west of the Alleghenies at Democratic headquarters in Pittsburgh next Saturday morning.

BIGGEST HORSE BUNCH THAT EVER WENT EAST

Baltimore Firm Buys and Ships Six Carloads—Future of the Business Here.

What is said by the Asher Horse and Mule Company to be the largest shipment of horses ever sent out at one time from Pittsburgh to one place, went to Baltimore yesterday. The horses were bought by M. Fox & Sons, of Baltimore and delivered by the United States Express Company, the insurance on the shipment amounting to $12,000.

The sale was made on Tuesday. 489 head of horses being disposed of, the Baltimore firm taking 127 of them. The 127 animals were loaded into six cars, and a Pullman car for the attendants was put on, the whole making a special train of seven cars.

Baltimore has been bragging about being a great horse market, but down at Asher's it is believed that in a few years Pittsburgh will be the greatest horse market in the country. The Fox firm comes to Pittsburgh to buy because of the quality of the horse flesh to be procured here.

LITTLE SHY OF CASH.

Allegheny Select Councils Ready to Transfer $13,640 from Contingent Fund Which Contains Only $5,000.

Just when Allegheny select council was ready yesterday to pass an ordinance transferring $13,640 from the contingent fund to the bureau of fire for certain improvements they were suddenly checked by the discovery that there is only $5,000 in the contingent fund. The ordinance was consequently amended to make this amount available, and the money will be used for the purchase of a new combination aerial hook and ladder truck and chemical engine for No. 4 engine house.

These measures passed finally:

Resolution for a warrant for Mrs. Louise Yokel for $300 for a strip of ground on East street for street purposes. Ordinances authorizing Director Mellvain of the department of public works to employ a supervising engineer for the installation of the new manifold system at the Montrose pumping station, grading, paving and curbing, Chester, Maple and Marshall avenues, Rhines street and the Washington avenue bridge approach west of the railroad, grading Honier street, regrading and repairing Pennsylvania avenue west of Fremont street and Harrison avenue, grading and macadamizing Riverview avenue, and excating a 20 foot strip of ground on Harrison avenue in order to straighten that thoroughfare.

The ordinance giving the O'Hara Street Railway Company the right of way along the public highway in front of the city home at Claremont also passed finally.

OLD MAN BEATS BOYS WITH ROLL OF MONEY

After a Newsboy Snatches Part of the Cash the Stranger Disappears in Crowd.

While the Fort Wayne railroad station and Federal street, Allegheny, were crowded with people returning home from work about 5 o'clock last evening, an unknown man, aged about 60, attracted attention by flashing a big roll of money. When the crowd stopped to watch his antics the man began chasing newsboys, catching one and beating him over the head with the big wad of greenbacks.

While the old man was having his fun one of the "newsies" ran up behind him and made a grab for the roll. He succeeded in getting about $7 and broke through the crowd and ran down Federal street to Lacock street, where he disappeared. A policeman saw the boy running away, and last night arrested Clarence Schaub, aged 16, who says he lives in Arch street, near North avenue.

When the boy was locked in Central police station he said he did not snatch the money from the man's hand, but that another boy who got the money gave him $2.50. During the excitement the old man disappeared.

WUP STUDENTS PLAN TURNOUT

NEWS FROM MANY FIELDS

The Dickinson football squad, including the regular eleven, together with substitutes, coaches and trainers, will arrive this morning for the game with the W. U. P.'s at Exposition park tomorrow. A respectable crowd of enthusiastic Dickinson alumni has planned to meet the team and escort their champions to their hotel, where headquarters will be located until after the game. Coach Mosse's eleven has been making Herculean efforts during the past few days in order to present the strongest possible lineup against the much touted eastern team. Coach Mosse absolutely refuses to announce anything in regard to his proposed lineup, but reports of the scrimmage practice say that some startling changes will be apparent in the W. U. P. line when the whistle blows tomorrow afternoon. Yesterday the coach had three teams hustling around the field, he giving his personal attention to the varsity.

In a fierce scrimmage between the varsity and scrubs two touchdowns were made by each side in a half hour of gruelling work. The varsity backfield was working in fine shape, the interference being especially fine. Schmidt, Mehl and Perry made big gains for the varsity, while Art Griggs and Q. Banbury carried the ball on several long end runs. Swensson ran the plays off with precision and accuracy. Frank Griggs worked at quarter back for the scrubs. His fine tackles cut off several promising end runs. The varsity is making great strides in team work and Coach Mosse said yesterday that he expected to show an exhibition of old-time form against the Dickinson pig-skin chasers.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—For 32 minutes this afternoon the followers of the Harvard varsity eleven had an opportunity to size up the players of the regulars in a scrimmage period against the scrubs. It was the first glimpse the public had since secret practice started last week, and general satisfaction was expressed at the exhibition given today. Previous to the opening of the gates, the varsity and second team ran through 20 minutes of scrimmage work, in which the Yale and Pennsylvania plays were used. The second team resorted to Pennsylvania's formations, but they failed to make much ground, and the varsity in turn registered two touchdowns on steady rushing. Saturday afternoon Harvard meets Brown at Cambridge, but not much importance is attached to the game by the coaches, as they consider Brown too light on the line to make serious trouble for the Crimson. Brown, it is true, might fool Capt. Hurley's men, but their play will have to be extraordinarily fast to do it.

U. of P.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—A feeling of great dissatisfaction prevails at Franklin field concerning the action of the eligibility committee in declaring Draper, the able tackle, ineligible for the football squad. The coaches do not understand how the committee, after once deciding Draper all right, could, at this late day, reverse themselves and declare him ineligible. The coaches are not hopeless, however, of winning the Harvard game, and say they will work all the harder and that the material is at hand to put together a winning team. The varsity was given hard scrimmage work again today behind closed gates. For over an hour they fought the scrubs. The latter were given the ball and ordered to rush it without regard to downs. They were unable to do anything, however, in the face of the varsity's stonewall defense. Banker, who played center, is a tower of strength. Torry was played at tackle and made good. Then the ball was given the varsity. They made good gains against their opponents.

Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Practice today was rather routine in its nature, but the scrimmage was sharp enough to be very interesting. The playing of both teams was fairly consistent and strong, and the fact that it was ideal football weather caused the men to put unusual snap into their play. The varsity was, as usual, strong, chiefly on offensive work, but the defense was not effective, and it is constantly in evidence that the coaches are finding the problem of defense a grave one. When Hard and Daub are in the back field a great difference is apparent and clearly shows how much these two men must be depended upon for secondary defense in the Yale game. They were taken out today in the latter part of the playing and Simons and Munn took their places. Both of these men play a good game, but what is needed is more weight. As long as the varsity had the ball today first downs came frequently, but the scrub went into them when it had the ball in a way that troubled the varsity to hold their ground.

Yale.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Ned Glass, veteran guard and coach, stepped into the Yale scrub rush line this afternoon to teach Berger more of how to play guard in anticipation that the lesson must be learned before the West Point game. The scrimmage was doubly interesting because of the lively set-to between them, and despite Glass' prestige and prowess, Berger stood up well under the test. Using the plays that West Point hammered Hurverd's rush line with last Saturday, the scrub eleven faced the varsity rush line, none of the backs of the latter being called into play. Burr Chamberlain drove the scrubs in these plays, but the varsity line held them well. One touchdown was made by the scrubs on an end play, the varsity having no secondary defense. There was a total of 11 coaches on Yale field this afternoon and they decline to discuss the implied threats that are alleged to come from Harvard. Privately they doubt the authenticity of such reports, and say they cannot recall an instance where any Yale player had been ruled off for slugging.

Pittsburgh Lyceum.

Marked improvement was shown in the work of the Lyceum squad when it turned out for practice last night. A new face was seen in the lineup. Joe Whitehead, who made an enviable reputation at quarter while playing with Lehigh university several years ago, made his first appearance on the football field in Pittsburgh. It was reported several days ago that the new player Lyceum was after was Musselman, but Manager O'Donnell said last night that it was Whitehead. Coach Bird put a large number of the subs and regular players through a series of formations and also gave them drill in signal practice. Particular attention was paid to the work of the backs. After two hours of hard work Bird expressed himself as much pleased with the improvement shown. Owing to W. U. P. and W. and J. having games in Pittsburgh tomorrow, the Lyceum eleven will not play a regular game, but will probably engage in a practice game with some minor eleven.

Carlisle Indians.

CARLISLE, PA., Oct 26.—(Special.)—The Indian eleven goes to Philadelphia tomorrow morning. Talks were addressed to the players today by Coach Woodruff and Major Mercer, who again spoke about refraining from the slightest retaliation in the approaching games for any seeming or actual roughness on the part of opponents. Nearly a thousand red skinned boys and girls will go to Philadelphia to stir Father Penn's blood with choice Indian melodies. At today's practice Jude and Charles were worked at drop kicking and Libby and Dubois at place kicking, the latter averaging seven goals from the 30-yard line out of every 10 trials. Assistant Coach Kinney had 20 men working at quick starting exercises for 20 minutes.

Lehigh.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—For the first time this season Lehigh field was closed to everybody this afternoon. Secret practice was the order. Tomorrow morning a squad of 18 will leave for Syracuse, where on Saturday the annual game with Syracuse university will take place. The Lehigh line-up will be: Capt. Herman, left end; Johnston, left tackle; Strauss, left guard; D. A. Dunn, center; Bachman, right guard; Pierce or Van Reenan, right tackle; Gott, right end; Eyne, quarterback; Lawyer, left halfback; Stocker, right halfback; Sheridan, fullback.

Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Today Cornell continued her work of yesterday by having the varsity go through scrimmages with both a scrub eleven and the freshman team. Waldo and Rice did not report for practice today and Pollak was in again at quarterback, where he seems in a fair way to remain. Under his guidance the team ran along in smooth shape. The back field of Earle, Dragoshoff and Folger was given a try-out today and played well together.

ALLEGHENY PREPS SHUT OUT THE SEWICKLEYS

Allegheny Preps, playing without three of their regulars—Fife, Worcester and Shilton—defeated Sewickley High 6 to 0. In the first half there was nothing but A. P. S. Emery. Murphy caught the kickoff and ran it back 30 yards. With Edward Murphy back the Preps hit the line for gains of from three to five yards. During this journey up the field Emery, Murphy and Lustin made good gains through the opposing tackles. Applegate got off two clever quarterback's runs, and then, with the ball on Sewickley's 12-yard line, Lustin, with three men clinging to him, ploughed his way to a touchdown. Hogan kicked goal.

Sewickley received the next kickoff and ran the ball back 10 yards. Here the High school boys tried an end run, but were thrown for a loss 5 yards. Then High punted to Hagan, who ran the ball back 15 yards. Again the Preps began their rush to the goal line, Hagan, Lustin Emery and Murphy all hit the line for good gains. With the ball on the 15-yard line Edward Murphy, with several men hanging to him, carried the ball to Sewickley's 3-yard line, when time was called.

In the second half Sewickley received the kickoff and carried the ball straight up the field to Preps five-yard line. Here the Sewickley quarterback fumbled the ball and, like a flash, Hagan was on it. The game ended with the ball in Preps' possession on their own 30-yard line.

For the Preps, Capt. Lustin, Hagan, Applegate and the two Murphys excelled. Preps offensive work was excellent. Not once were they held for downs. McCabe and Erwin played well for Sewickley. Scores:

MERCER EXPLAINS THE SLIPPERY ROCK TROUBLE

MERCER, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—The trouble in yesterday's game between Mercer and Slippery Rock was due to a decision by Referee Moreland after two minutes and 25 seconds of the second half had been played. Capt. MacDonald of the Slippery Rock team carried the ball over his own goal on the kick off. He was downed behind the line and a safety was declared for Mercer. On Slippery Rock's refusal to abide by this decision, Referee Moreland justly declared the game forfeited to Mercer. Furthermore, after the game, Umpire Clutton of Slippery Rock acknowledged to two of the Mercer players that Moreland's ruling was correct. The game was therefore won by Mercer by the score of 2 to 0.

No Brutal Play at Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—If any exhibition of brutality or any disposition to "knock out" players is seen at the Harvard-Yale game next month, a proposition will be made in the Harvard corporation to drop the game at Harvard. This body has the right to prohibit any sport detrimental to the good name of the university. The members of the Harvard corporation at present are disinclined to say anything for publication. They feel that all has been said that was needful to let the undergraduates know the situation. It rests wholly with them.

Pittsburgh College Sophs Doing Well.

After a week's idleness the Pittsburgh college Sophs were out yesterday afternoon and put in two hours at hard practice. Several changes were made in the lineup and several surprises may be sprung tomorrow when the Mifflins will be the attraction on the Bluff. Laux was brought back to half, Duffy to quarter and Dowling went to end. Several new formations were tried and the whole team showed a remarkable amount of smoothness in spite of the changes.

O'Brien and Kaufmann Tonight.

Tonight, at San Francisco, Jack O'Brien and Al. Kaufmann will come together for a contest that is set for 20 rounds. Kaufmann will have a decided advantage in weight, while O'Brien will have years of experience to fall back on. The odds slightly favor O'Brien in the betting, 10 to 9 being the prevailing price offered yesterday, with very little Kaufmann money in sight.

HUEBNER CRAWLS UP ON CHAMPION ITTEL

The third day of the annual tournament of the Iroquois Rifle club finds Champion Ittel in the lead with two 74's and a 73. Young Huebner is close at his heels, with two 74's and one 71, a difference of two points. They are the only shooters who have so far made 74 on a target out of a possible 75. It promises to be a great battle between them today, the last day of the tournament. H. Mauburgher took his final crack at the targets yesterday and could not get beyond 72, three of which he hung up. There was a large number of shooters present. The best scores made were the following:

MURRAY FOR THE REDS.

Successful Minor League Manager May Head the Cincinnati Team.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—It is not at all improbable that Billy Murray, manager of the Jersey City team of the Eastern league, will conduct the work of the Cincinnati team next year. August Herrmann, owner of the Reds, has had several consultations with the Eastern league man in reference to taking up the work next year, but so far no agreement has been reached. Herrmann offered Murray $5,000 a year, but Murray says that he can do as well as that in the minor league, and will not consider it.

Joe Kelley, who managed the Reds during the past season, has already signed with the club for next year, but only as a player, and it is not likely that Mr. Herrmann will make any decision as to who will run the club until he has a final answer from Murray.

Murray deserves the honor of having the position offered him. In his baseball career he has done much to improve and benefit the game. He put the Jersey City club on a good sound footing. He is a man who knows the national game from the first letter in the alphabet to the last, and it is just possible that, if he gets the Cincinnati club under his control he will be able to infuse the necessary ginger to make it a winning ball club.

DAVE BARRY, THE PUG, AS A FOOTBALL PLAYER

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Athletic circles were shaken today by the discovery that Northwestern university, the great Methodist school, had a former professional prize fighter on its football eleven. Dave Barry, the Canadian lightweight, has participated in several of the practice games that Northwestern has played already this year. Barry is former lightweight champion boxer of Canada, participant in many widely advertised ring battles in the United States, and at one time regarded as a coming world's champion. Barry now weighs in the neighborhood of 190 pounds. Barry is a bona-fide student in the Northwestern University Medical school and is one of the most popular students in the institution. He has not attempted to play under any name other than his own.

Diocesan Pool Matches Tonight.

In the Diocesan Pool league tonight the St. Charles and St. Joseph teams will meet on the St. Charles tables, and the two St. Aloysius teams will meet on the Sharpsburg tables. No report has yet been received of Monday's St. Aloysius and St. Anthony game.

Notice to A. J. Martin Players.

The officials and players of the A. J. Martin baseball team will please note that Manager Martin has called a meeting for Friday evening at 7:30, which all members must attend without fail.

AMONG THE BOXERS.

It would be a good idea for McGovern to meet Young Corbett to ascertain who is entitled to fight Battling Nelson.

Frank Walling and Tommy Trimble last night agreed to meet next Friday at a smoker. The distance will be six rounds.

Joe Gans has gone to the coast, where his interests will be looked after by James Goffroth, who is running the Colma club, where Britt and Nelson fought their great contest.

The Charlerol A. C. has secured Jack Bruce of Pittsburgh to meet Bob Reardon of Donora as the semi-wind-up of eight rounds to the Ryan-Simms contest on Monday. Al Martin, booked by the club to meet Reardon, has not time to do proper training.

Philadelphia is having fights every night and no harm is being done, while this end of the state is very quiet. Jimmy Mason says he will get his stable working in a short time, and it is to be hoped that he will, as the people here like to see boxing bouts.

Young Zerringer, the 105-pounder who Jimmy Mason thinks is the coming bantamweight, will start to train along with Larry Temple, Paul Moore and Joe Alton at the Business Men's club out Fifth avenue. Temple intends to start a boxing class for the winter in a few days.

Billy Ryan, who is matched to meet Art Simms for 10 rounds at Charleroi on Monday, writes from Syracuse that he will have no trouble in making 128 pounds. Ryan is one of the best little fellows at his weight in the country. His meetings with Jack McClelland proved this.

Steps were taken yesterday afternoon by the athletic committee of the Chicago Athletic association to hold boxing entertainments throughout the winter. No announcement has been made as to whether the bouts are to be amateur or professional, but at another meeting of the committee to be held in a few days this question will be decided.

Draper Is Forever Barred.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Oct. 26.—(Special.)—Field Coach Dickson late today announced the reason for the barring of Draper. It now appears that Draper was "induced" to go to Swarthmore and played there in 1901, receiving room rent and tuition free. This forever bars Draper from competing for Pennsylvania in any way.

FORMAL announcement was made yesterday of the engagement of Miss Jenny A. Bradley and Frederick W. Miller. The engagement was made public by Mrs. George Hamilton Flinn to a few of her most intimate friends whom she had invited by telephone to spend the afternoon and have tea with her at her home in Fifth avenue, Shadyside. The announcement came as a complete surprise to those who were present, and Miss Bradley was the recipient of many good wishes. Tea was poured by Miss Gertrude Smith, the tea table having a dainty centerpiece of yellow chrysanthemums which served as the sole decoration. Miss Bradley is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson Bradley, Sr., of South Negley avenue, and a sister of Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel Biddle of Philadelphia. Her fiance is a Pittsburgh attorney. No time has been mentioned for the wedding.

Debutante Tea and Anniversary.

Miss Mary Whittier Shields made her debut yesterday at a large reception given by her mother, Mrs. Thomas Lest Shields, whose 25th wedding anniversary the day also marked. The hostess and her debutante daughter received together in the bay window of their home, "Norwich House," Shields station, the hostess wearing a gown of white crepe de Chine and cluny lace, and Miss Shields a girlish frock of white point d'esprit with lace trimmings. Numerous beautiful bouquets were received by the young guest of honor, and these were used to decorate the living room, where they filled the mantel and hung in the doorways and over the windows. A mound of pink chrysanthemums occupied the center of the dining-room table, where pink-shaded candles, confections and ices furthered the color scheme. Assisting through the various rooms were Mrs. James B. Oliver, Mrs. James B. Umbstaetter and Miss Rebecca Shields, aunts of Miss Shields; Mrs. L. Bussey Williams, Miss Susan Shields Williams, Miss Amelia Oliver, Mrs. William P. Snyder, Mrs. Neville B. Dilworth, Mrs. Frank F. Brooks, Mrs. Frank H. Russell, Mrs. Robert McCready, Mrs. J. Two Sisters Are Introduced.

The Edgeworth club house was the scene of much gaiety and beauty last evening, the occasion being the dance at which Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Clause of Sewickley were the host and hostess, to introduce their two daughters, Miss Alice Elizabeth Clause and Miss Luella Ruth Clause. The former is a Wellesley girl while her younger sister was educated at Miss Ely's school. They received with their mother, who wore a handsome gown of black embroidered net. Miss Clauss was gowned in white lace hung over a yellow slip, and Miss Ruth appeared in white chiffon. They were assisted by Mrs. George P. Rose, Mrs. George A. Gormley, Mrs. Luke B. Chesebro, Mrs. Charles W. Brown, Mrs. George McClagne, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Eleanor Gormley, Miss John Way, Jr., Miss Mary Patterson, Miss Elizabeth McCague, Miss Catherine McCague, Miss Olive Nevin, Miss Marie Milligan, Miss Mabel Gillespie and Miss Rachael Pfleum, several of the last-named being Wellesley friends of Miss Clause. The guests were welcomed in the red reception room of the club, where the mantel was banked with ferns and white chrysanthemums. The chandeliers both in this room and in the ball room and dining-room were hung with smilax, while on the supper tables were centerpieces of pink roses. Palms were placed about the green and white ball room and smilax draped the walls.

Miss Witherow Makes Her Debut.

Miss Helen Witherow, the first of the season's debutantes to be introduced, made her formal bow at a handsomely appointed luncheon given yesterday by her mother, Mrs. William Witherow of Sherman avenue, Allegheny. The luncheon was given at the Allegheny Country club, the pretty dining room being filled by small tables, each having a centerpiece of ragged yellow chrysanthemums. Both the hostess and her daughter wore toilettes of blue, Mrs. Witherow's being of cloth and the debutante's of velvet. The guests were Miss Carolyn Snowden of Brownsville, Miss Witherow's house guest; Miss Elizabeth Hamilton, Miss Hester Singer, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Martha Chambers, Miss Ines Warren, Miss Margaret Hay, Miss Edith Hay, Miss Helen Myers, Miss Sarah McKnight, Miss Mary Jennings, Miss Katherine Jennings, Miss Evelyn Black, Miss Euphemia Bakewell, Miss Africa Humbird, Miss Louise McKinney, Miss Charlotte Kennedy, Mrs. William McBride, Miss Betty Wardrop, Miss Emily Lyon Copeland, Miss Lydia McKnight, Miss Marion Clapp, Miss Agate Brown, Miss Mary W. Plans for Irwin-MacCloskey Wedding.

The approaching wedding of Miss Helen Irwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Irwin, of Brooklyn, to James Edward MacCloskey, Jr., of this city, is of interest to many Pittsburghers. Miss Irwin has chosen her sister, Miss Martha Irwin, as maid of honor, and as bridesmaids, Miss Georgette Irwin, another sister, and Miss Mildred MacCloskey, a sister of the bridegroom. Walter C. Arensberg, a Harvard roommate of Mr. MacCloskey, will act as best man. A number of Pittsburgh people will go to Brooklyn for the wedding, which is to be a home affair, among the local guests being Mr. and Mrs. J. E. MacCloskey, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Arensberg, Miss Edith Arensberg and Charles Arensberg, with several friends of the Irwins, who are former residents of Pittsburgh. Mr. MacCloskey will bring his bride to this city where they are to be at home in East End avenue.

Sowash-Dudley.

Miss Edna Sowash and Robert DeWitt Dudley were married at 7:30 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sowash, Reynolds street, East End. The Rev. G. W. Lose, an uncle of the bride, came from Columbus to perform the ceremony, at which the bridal couple were attended by Miss Edith Oliver, maid of honor; William Dudley, best man, and little Miss Virginia Morman, flower girl. The bride was gowned in white point d'esprit, with a wreath of roses in her hair and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Oliver also wore white point d'esprit, while her flowers were pink chrysanthemums. The little flower girl, in a simple frock of thin white material, carried a basket of pink and white roses. Clusters of roses in these two colors formed the decorations for the house. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley will be at home in Travers City at the conclusion of their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Petty's Dinner.

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander A. E. McCandless were the only guests in addition to the McCandless-Petty bridal party present at the dinner given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blakeney Petty, Sr., at their home in Irwin avenue, Squirrel Hill. Pink and white roses and chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece on the table, and for favors there were corsage bouquets and boutonnieres of roses. Mrs. William Stevenson of Woodlawn avenue will entertain this evening for Miss Mary Gertrude McCandless and R. B. Petty, Jr., the bridal couple, and Miss Eleanor Dorrington Mustin, one of the bridesmaids, will be hostess at cards in honor of Miss McCandless tomorrow afternoon. The bride-elect will give the rehearsal dinner on Monday evening, and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the wedding will take place in the Sixth Presbyterian church, with the Rev. J. Shane Nicholls officiating.

Best Man Is Host.

Austin G. Nicola of the Hotel Schenley gave a theater party at the Bijou last evening in honor of his brother, George W. Nicola, and the latter's fiancee, Miss Gladys L. Painter. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver P. Nicola chaperoned the party, which included only the members of the Painter-Nicola bridal party. Following the play supper was served at the Duquesne club, the centerpiece on the table being a most effective combination of white chrysanthemums and yellow roses, with asparagus plumosa and maidenhair ferns. The rehearsal for the wedding will take place at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow evening and will precede a dinner at which the bridegroom will be host at the club. Mrs. Nelson Perrin of Baltimore, Md., will arrive in Allegheny on Sunday to be a guest of Mrs. Park Painter, the bride's mother, over the wedding.

Double Birthday Celebration.

One of the smartest affairs of the week was the dinner which Mrs. George C. Burgwin of Craft avenue gave on Tuesday evening in honor of her daughters, Miss Anne Burgwin and Miss Gwendolen Burgwin, whose birthday anniversaires came, one the day before and the other the day after that on which the dinner was given. Among the guests were Miss Beatrice Hawkins, Miss Jean McClintock, Miss Elizabeth Sellers, Miss Elsie McClintock, Miss Alberta Harper, Miss Nancy Marshall, Miss Carolyn Hay, Miss Mary Rodd, Joseph Holmes, Arthur Scully, Warren Kay, James Blair, John Cross, Palmer Collins, Fletcher Collins, A. P. Burgwin and Howard Armstrong.

Dr. Park Will Officiate.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas Park, pastor of the Fourth United Presbyterian church of Allegheny, will officiate at the wedding of Miss Clara Brown Armstrong and Barkley Preston Schoyer, set for November 1. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father the wedding will be very quietly conducted at the summer home of her mother, Mrs. Andrew J. Armstrong, in Edgeworth, at 6:30 o'clock in the evening, and there will be no attendants. Only the immediate relatives will be present. Upon returning from their wedding trip Mr. Schoyer and his bride will live with Mrs. Armstrong at her winter residence in North avenue, Allegheny.

Will Live in Pittsburgh.

After their wedding trip Dr. William Herron Cameron and his bride, now Miss Susan Valiante Tiers, will reside in Forty-fourth street, Lawrenceville. Their wedding will be a very quiet event at 8 o'clock on the evening of November 8, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Tiers in Oakmont. The Rev. Dr. Laurens Mcintire, rector of St. Thomas Protestant Episcopal church, will solemnize the marriage, and the bridal couple will be unattended. Miss Helen Hamilton is to give a card party for Miss Tiers next Thursday afternoon, and on the following evening Miss Grace Runnette of Atlantic avenue, East End, will be hostess at a dinner for the same honor guest.

Interesting Sewickley Wedding.

A wedding of much interest in Sewickley will be that of Miss Martha Elizabeth Neale, daughter of Mrs. Alonzo Potter Neale of that place, to Frederick Hoyt Thatcher of New York City. St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal church, Sewickley, will be the scene of the wedding on Saturday afternoon, November 4. Four o'clock is the hour set for the ceremony, to be performed by the Rev. Robert A. Benton, rector of the church. A reception at Mrs. Neale's home will follow the ceremony. Mr. Thatcher and his bride are to live in New York.

Off for Europe.

Mrs. James E. Brown, Mrs. James Todd and Mrs. Alexander Laughlin are in New York, having gone east to bid farewell to a party of friends sailing yesterday on the new steamer Ametika, of the Hamburg-American line. Those who were bidden bon voyage were Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Quay and their three children, and Mrs. Quay's mother, Mrs. W. W. Waters, all of Sewickley, who expect to spend the winter in Florence.

Notes of Society.

Mrs. Charles A. Kolb of McClure avenue extension, Allegheny, will entertain at cards tomorrow afternoon in honor of Mrs. Monroe Witherspoon, a bride of last winter.

Mrs. W. A. McMasters of Atlantic avenue, Allegheny, gave a surprise dinner last evening in honor of her husband. Covers were laid for 12, the guests including Walter Nichols, Harry Reed, Ben Frampton, William Seegmiller, Jacob Geyer, John Anderson, Paul Irwin, Lee Winter, Frank Hanna, William Vortman and J. E. Corfield.

Miss Mary Morgan and Hugh Pollon will be the only attendants at the wedding of Miss Hanna Meredith Morgan and Harry Rex Martin, which is set for October 31. The Rev. Dr. Henry L. Bresden will perform the ceremony at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Morgan in Crafton. Mr. Martin and his bride will spend the winter abroad, sailing on the Pretoria on November 4.

THE CLUBS

Contributions to this department must bear the name and address of the writer to insure attention.

Playground Committee Reorganizes.

The reorganization of the joint committee of women's clubs for conducting the Pittsburgh summer playgrounds, vacation schools and recreation parks was decided upon yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting in the Twentieth Century club house, Duquesne way. About 40 members of the committee, including some of the most prominent club women, were present. The name of the committee was changed to the Pittsburgh Playgrounds association, and it was decided to apply immediately for a charter. It was also voted to limit the charter members to 25, representing different clubs. With the securing of a charter by-laws will be acted upon, the plan of organization being developed in these new rules of the reorganized body. Provision will be made for clubs to become associate members by the payment of $1. The new association will have annual dues.

Some of the most active supporters of the summer playground work have felt a necessity for the committee to become an incorporated body. There are some who have questioned the urgent need for this. Some have wanted for some time a report of the Pittsburgh playground work to reach the State Federation of Pennsylvania women, with which the clubs furnishing the workers for the joint committee have been federated. Such reports have never been made, though in an indirect way the work of the summer playgrounds and vacation schools in Pittsburgh has reached that body. During the past season, especially, contracts for work in the recreation parks have been given and this is what has brought about the decision to secure a charter.

The various annual reports were presented yesterday afternoon covering the work in the individual playgrounds and vacation schools and parks. For the first time in its history the treasurer, Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon, reported a small balance in the treasury.

The nominating committee, Mrs. Mattie Patterson, chairman, presented a ticket of nominations for the various offices, which was unanimously elected, the secretary, Miss Jennie D. Bradley, casting the ballot. The officers include the chairman, Miss Beulah Kennard; vice chairmen, Mrs. David Kirk, and Mrs. Robert D. Coard; secretary, Mrs. Charles R. Wray, and treasurer, Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon.

Miss Shedlock Recites.

Miss Marie L. Shedlock last evening gave a reading before the Alliance Francaise in the assembly room of the Twentieth Century club. During the early evening she read from the recent books of Andre Lichtenberger, and after the intermission recited some monologues, most of them humorous, several by request. Miss Shedlock is an English woman with a remarkably correct French accent, and her readings were much enjoyed. The first matinee of the Alliance Francaise this season will be given early in November, the day to be announced later.

Going Home Today.

Miss Jane Campbell of Germantown, Mrs. Mary B. Luckie of Chester and Mrs. Price of Swarthmore, who have spent the past week in Pittsburgh, stopping here on their return from the State Federation meeting in Cambridge Springs, will leave this morning for the east. During their stay here they have been guests at nearly all of the club meetings of the past seven days, and added to their wide circle of friends among the club women of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. Among the clubs they visited were the Colloquium, the Travelers, New Era and Columbian Council of Jewish Women.

Physical Training for Women.

Physical training for women was the principal subject discussed at the regular meeting of the Thursday Afternoon club of Wilkinsburg, which was held yesterday in the home of Miss Sara Baldwin, Atlantic avenue, Shadyside. Miss Elizabeth Stoner presented the subject, which she strongly advocated. The music for the afternoon was also provided by Miss Stoner. A report of the state federation meeting was given, the club's delegate being Mrs. Franklin M. Gordan. Mrs. R. W. Allison will be hostess to the club at the next meeting, which will be held in her home in Wood street, Wilkinsburg.

Elects Officers Today.

The United Presbyterian Women's association will hold its annual meeting today in the Fourth United Presbyterian church, Arch street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny. The morning session will be given up to the annual reports and this afternoon the election of the officers and executive board, together with the boards of directors for the Orphans' home, the hospital and the Home for the Aged, 30 women in all, will be elected.

Kindergarten Reception Today.

The children in the kindergarten conducted by Mrs. William Wilkinson, in Center avenue and Franklin street, Wilkinsburg, will give an exhibition of their work this morning at 11 o'clock. The parents of the children have been invited to spend the morning in the kindergarten, and the little people will sing their songs, play their games and take up their occupation work as on other days.

Closing Successful Year.

The closing meeting of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Sterilized Milk and Ice Association will be held on Monday morning, October 30, at 10:30 o'clock, in the offices of Bishop Cortlandt Whitehead, Lewis block, Smithfield street and Sixth avenue. During the past summer the association has maintained three very successful distributing stations, one in the chapel of the Fourth Avenue Baptist church, Pittsburgh; another in "The Kings Own Mission," Robinson street, Allegheny, and the third in the Woods Run Industrial Home. In the majority of cases the distribution has been made free of charge to deserving but poor people. The president, Mrs. Enoch Rauh, said yesterday: "We cannot close these stations yet for they are doing such good work and many cases are being sent to us by the department of public charities and other philanthropic societies. If possible we will keep one or more open during the winter."

Columbian Council Meets.

The president's day reception of the Columbian Council of Jewish Women yesterday afternoon was a very successful affair. It was conducted in the Bellefield club house, which was brilliantly decorated with autumn foliage. An address was delivered by the president, Mrs. Enoch Rauh, who spoke of the work which is being done for the moral uplifting of humanity through the women's organizations, urging upon every woman the privilege and duty of assisting in this work. A report of the State Federation meeting in Cambridge Springs last week was presented by the delegate, Mrs. M. Mona Lesser. Short talks were also given by Miss Jane Campbell, Mrs. Mary B. Luckie and Mrs. Price, all of them club women from Eastern Pennsylvania, while the music was exceptionally enjoyable and consisted of songs by Miss Gundling of Wheeling, W. Va., violin solos by Adolf Rosen, and piano numbers by Miss Martha Groff. The exercises were opened with prayer by Miss Julia Schoenfeld. Tea was served under the direction of the social committee.

Donation Day at Oakland Nursery.

The donations received yesterday afternoon at the Oakland Day Nursery exceeded those of a year ago. The reception given by the managers yesterday afternoon was a delightful affair, and there were many visitors to the nursery where the children were to be seen, in former years the little ones not being in evidence. The officers of the board who received included Miss Mary McKee, the president; Mrs. George Abraham, vice president; Mrs. William Phillips, recording secretary; Mrs. William Edwards, corresponding secretary, and Miss Beulah Little, treasurer. The other members of the board assisted in serving refreshments.

Public Meeting of Juvenile Court.

An open meeting of the Juvenile Court Aid Society will be held in the Hotel Anderson on Sunday evening, November 5, which is to be of special interest as it is the first annual meeting, the organization of the society having only recently been effected. An address will be made by Mrs. Alice B. Montgomery, the chief probation officer of the juvenile court of Allegheny county.

Club Notes.

The annual donation day reception in the Allegheny Day Nursery and Temporary Home in Perrysville avenue, was conducted yesterday from 2 o'clock until 10.

A Japanese tea and musicale was given yesterday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. J. Alexander Hardy in Rebecca street, for the benefit of the Children's Aid Society of Allegheny county.

"The Golden Crook."

At the Gayety theater next week there will be offered the big burlesque sensation of the year—the "Golden Crook." The production is scenically elaborate and differs in many ways from the usual burlesque. There are 50 people in the company—mostly girls, of course—and the olio is said to be quite the most pretentious ever placed before patrons of burlesque. In the cast the company and the production have scored a big success.

Coming of Mrs. Fiske.

Next week will be an important one at the Belasco theater, with Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan company of players as the offering. This actress, always a favorite in this city, appears for this engagement in the most popular play of her career. She is supported by a remarkably talented company, and is likely to duplicate in this city the triumph she has won in "Leah Kleschna" in New York and other cities.

The Y. M. C. A. of Bellevue will hold an entertainment on Saturday night for members and women friends. The program will include readings by Miss Madge Kerns and piano selections by Miss May Wasson. No special invitations have been sent out, and everybody is welcome.

CONNELLSVILLE ASKS LOWER RATE

Merchants of That Town Say Freight Tariffs to Pittsburgh Are Prohibitive.

M. & M. WILL ASK FOR RELIEF

SPECIAL TELEGRAM FROM JEROME J. NORDMAN, Staff Correspondent.

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., Oct. 26.—Better freight rates is the urgent plea which has been made by merchants in nearly all towns visited during the present fifth trade extension tour of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association.

"Help us to get the Pittsburgh freight rate for Connellsville," was the appeal made by the merchants of this place tonight at a reception held in Carnegie hall, and this plea was the basis of the principal address of the evening, by H. P. Snyder, editor of the Connellsville Courier, who urged reciprocity. He promised the trade of Connellsville if the Merchants and Manufacturers' association would co-operate with the merchants of this place in an effort to secure the Pittsburgh freight rate, which prevails within a radius of 40 miles of Pittsburgh. Connellsville is 56 miles removed and must pay the Pittsburgh rate, plus 5 to 8 cents per hundred weight. He said that freight coming from the west and unloaded at Connellsville must pay a rate equal to that if shipped to Pittsburgh, and then sent back to this point. President Lloyd, of the Merchants and Manufacturers, assured him that the association would take the matter up.

B. P. Wallace, a local merchant voiced the same opinion and stated that existing freight rates were keeping new industries out of Connellsville. He said Pittsburgh was the natural market for Connellsville, because of quick shipments, therefore, less capital need be tied up in carrying heavy stocks.

Other addresses were made by Secretary J. W. Wardrop, J. A. Connell, contract agent for the Bell Telephone company; G. L. Roberts, of the Merchants and Manufacturers, who said he was not taking advantage of the tour in placing his goods (coffins); J. A. Mason, J. R. Balsley, Captain E. Dunn, George D. McIlvaine and Henry Rhodes of New Haven.

The M. and M. quartet furnished entertainment.

A token of appreciation was presented at the conclusion of the banquet in Y. M. C. A. hall in Cumberland last night, when the guests from the M. and M. association raised a purse of $100, which was donated to the local Y. M. C. A. association.

The first stop this morning was made at Hyndman, where a hearty greeting was extended by Charles R. Rhodes, and the citizens of the town, who assembled at the station.

At Meyersdale the visitors were received in the Opera house and a welcome extended by J. D. Shipley. The Somerset reception committee boarded the train at this place and escorted the party to their city. Here the meeting was also held in the Opera house, where Burgess J. D. Swank and Attorney W. H. Ruppel spoke on behalf of the "Highest County Seat in Pennsylvania," and after President Lloyd and Secretary Wardrop had spoken, Burgess Swank ordered his audience to "scatter" and the stores were visited.

A change in itinerary was made here tonight in accord with the request of the merchants of Connellsville, who have provided for a special trolley ride to Scottdale and Mt. Pleasant tomorrow morning.

The train will meet the pilgrims at Mt. Pleasant at 11:30 o'clock, and it is expected that the party will arrive in the Pittsburgh Baltimore & Ohio railroad station tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

COST OF PUBLIC PRINTING IS STEADILY DECREASING

With Heavy Increase in Number of Publications the Expense Has Been Reduced.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, Oct. 26.—There has been a steady decrease in the cost of the state printing in Pennsylvania the last few years, and this, too, with three new departments to provide for, the publication of "Pennsylvania at Gettysburg," and an increase in the number of bulletins from the three divisions of the department of agriculture from 5,000 to 25,000.

But five states showed a decrease in the cost of public printing last year. One of these was Pennsylvania, and the other four were Southern states. From 1880 to 1900 the increase in printing in the various states was 76 per cent. During the same period the cost of printing required by the national government increased 141 per cent, or about double the increase shown for the states, most of which operate under the contract system, such as Pennsylvania, and do not own their plant, as is the case with the United States government.

The report shows the cost of printing, binding, paper and other supplies for the fiscal year ending June 30 last to have amounted in the aggregate to $321,686 62, including paper and other supplies to the value of $34,789 99, which were on hand at the beginning of the last fiscal year. This is a decrease of $36,605 51, as compared with the corresponding legislative year of 1902-3, when the printing and binding is always much greater than when the legislature is not in session.

In addition to this, the printing and binding for the two years, from July 1, 1903, to July 1, 1905, was executed for $123,121 58 less than the cost for performing this branch of the state government for the two preceding years, or from July 1, 1901, to July 1, 1903.

"Whenever a few people gather together and style themselves something, and choose a president, and eight or nine vice-presidents, and a secretary and a treasurer, and a committee on elections, and then let it be known that almost nobody else is qualified to belong to it, there springs up immediately in hundreds and thousands of breasts a fiery craving to get into that body."

COMMONWEALTH IS AFTER PLANS

Architects Are Selected to Compete for 16-Story Skyscraper in Fourth Avenue.

DOWNTOWN SALE OF $110,000

Following closely upon the competition for the Union National bank skyscraper at Fourth avenue and Wood street the Commonwealth Trust Company has selected a number of well-known architects to prepare competitive designs for its proposed skyscraper on the Dalhmeyer lot in Fourth avenue. The officers of the company are reticent about giving out information concerning the project and no list of the competing architects is obtainable. The plans will be submitted within two weeks and as soon as possible thereafter a decision will be made. The building will be started April 1, 1906, when the leases on the Dalhmeyer block expires.

The building will be either 12 or 16 stories, probably the latter. This will bring its cost up to $800,000 or more. The site is 96x84.5 feet. Although not generally known the Commonwealth owns an interest in the west wall of the Keystone office building adjoining ,which is 14 stories high, the wall being amply strong enough for a 20-story structure. It is probable that the Commonwealth and the Union National will also build a party wall on the other side for details of this plan are now being worked out. Little is known of the plans of the building which will be embodied in the competitive designs except that the Commonwealth will occupy the first floor.

Liberty Avenue Sale of $110,000.

Real estate bears may try to howl down any boom in Liberty avenue property, but their efforts are not supported by the sales being made. No. 431, owned by John A. Staley, was sold yesterday for $110,000. This making the third deal in this avenue within a week. The buyer's name could not be learned. The lot has a frontage of 23 feet 11 inches on the north side of the avenue, directly opposite the Wabash station and a depth of 115 feet. It is improved with a four-story brick building occupied by the Cudahy Packing Company. The price paid is at the rate of $4,600 a front foot or $40,000 a square foot.

The most interesting thing about this transaction is that two years ago the Freehold Real Estate Company sold 431 and 433 Liberty jointly to John A. Staley and Attorney Joseph Stadtfeld for $107,000. Later these men separated their holdings, Mr. Staley taking 431. He now receives for this property $3,000 more than was paid for both lots in 1903. The lots are of the same size and the improvements are very similar, the building at 433 being occupied by Laird & Taylor, shoe dealers. The Staley lot adjoins 23 feet at 429 which is owned by Charles Donnelly, but whether Mr. Donnelly has any connection with this deal could not be learned yesterday.

New Lease in Fifth Avenue.

Considerable curiosity has been aroused the last few days by the remodeling that has been going on at 340 Fifth avenue, the building formerly occupied by the "Leader" department store. A handsome stone entrance is being provided, the walls are being redecorated and the entire premises given a thorough overhauling. The room, which extends back to Diamond street, has been leased by Albert Boyer from the "Leader" people whose lease on the property does not expire till April 1, 1906. The original lease was made from the late Henry W. Oliver and later was transferred to B. F. Keith, the theatrical manager, who bought the property two years ago. It is for $15,000 a year and Mr. Keith has tried several times to buy it, but to no avail. It is reported that Mr. Boyer will put in a full line of hardware now titles, but the said yesterday that his plans were not fully matured.

A peculiar real estate ruling has been made by the congregation of the Third United Presbyterian church which voted to allow Mrs. H. C. Lyon to sell property valued at $160,000 which is part of the estate of her husband who died in 1898 and left a part of his estate to the church which will receive, it is said, about $15,000. The property in question is 10 East Diamond alley, facing the market house and measures 25x99 feet. An offer of $160,000 was lately made for the property and in order that it could be sold it was necessary to get the consent of the church trustees. The remainder of the landed property of the Lyons' estate consists of the homestead in Neville street, 9 property in Shady avenue and other East End lots.

Big Help to Elizabeth.

Elizabeth is to have a new business block that will be the equal of any in that enterprising town as the result of the formation of the Elizabeth Land and Improvement Company, which has just applied for a charter. The incorporators are J. Walter Bay, A. D. Pierce, C. R. Weigel, F. E. Patterson and Arthur Salmon. On a site 120x143 feet facing in Third street running from Second to Third street the company proposes to erect a four-story modern business block to cost $30,000 or more. On the first floor there will be provided six storerooms, each 20 feet wide. The second floor will be arranged for flats of five rooms each. The third floor will be a public hall and the fourth floor will be used by the Steven Hayard Masonic lodge. Work on the building will be started soon. Directly across the street at the corner of Second street the First National bank is now erecting a very handsome one-story brick structure.

The Real Estate Savings and Trust Company of Allegheny has captured the biggest North Side renting contract in many months. It includes the handling of all the properties of the estate of C. B. Willey, comprising more than 150 houses in the First and Fifth wards of Allegheny, and also property in Sixth and Water streets and Cherry alley in Pittsburgh. The company will have exclusive control of all the holdings.

The Anchor Real Estate Company has been formed by Richard W. Martin, Walter P. Rainbow and John S. Weller, who have applied for a Pennsylvania charter. Until this is secured the incorporators decline to give out any information regarding their purposes.

It develops that Sidney H. Totten was associated with the firm of O. C. Zellner & Co. in making the sale of the Craig property at 429 Liberty avenue to J. W. Harrison, which was announced Wednesday. The price was $120,000, or $6,000 a foot.

Treasury Trust Gets Corner.

The Treasury Trust Company, which has been located at 219 Fourth avenue since its formation, proves to be the lessee of the four-story building at Fourth avenue and Market street which is now occupied by the McCann butter store. The lease, which was made through the Aronson-Friedman Company, is announced recently. Is for 10 years at $8,000 a year.

Through the office of M. S. Metcalfe William S. Coe has sold to John B. Cox a row of seven brick houses in Duff street, Thirteenth ward, for $11,000. The purchase was made for an investment.

The Commonwealth Real Estate Company has sold for Dr. R. G. Shiffler through the offices of S. Mandlovitz the properties at 124-122 Trent street for $14,000. They consist of five brick houses on a lot 60x80 feet and are rented at $1,220 a year.

Allegheny building permits were issued yesterday as follows: To N. D. Yant & Co., for the erection of a one-story iron manufactory on Beaver avenue, near Rebecca street, to cost $1,500; to George Schaffarn, for a two-story brick veneer dwelling on Brighton road, near Benton avenue, to cost $6,500; to Lyda Graber, for two two-story frame dwellings in Broadway avenue, near Perrysville avenue, to cost $4,700 each.

In Pittsburgh H. F. Leesman received a permit for the erection of four brick veneered houses in Lincoln avenue, Twenty-first ward, to cost $15,000.

Bellevue: The Real Estate Savings and Trust Company sold for the Allegheny Real Estate Improvement Company to S. R. Creft a frame house on 40x100 feet, on the south side of Dunbar avenue, Bellevue park plan, First ward, Bellevue, for $3,300.

Twenty acres of ground was sold by C. J. Sinn and W. P. Philips of Port Vue, to J. Ben Wiley of Whitinsburg, Pa. Consideration was $20,000. The ground was recently optioned for a large manufacturing concern and it is understood that Mr. Wiley made the purchase for the company.

Late Capt. Dravo to Be Remembered by Ohio Valley Improvement Association.

The stage of water at Davis Island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 6.6 feet and the river was falling.

Col. John L. Vance, president of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, has appointed a committee to draft a memorial on the late Capt. John F. Dravo, the only life member of the association at the time of its death. The memorial will be presented at the annual convention at Cairo next month. The committee is composed of the following:

George H. Anderson, William E. Rodgers, James A. Henderson, J. Frank Tilley and John H. Jones, Pittsburgh; Albert Bettinger and J. F. Ellison, Cincinnati; W. W. Hite and Swagar Sherley, Louisville; George Parsons, Cairo, Ill.; Isaac H. Odell, Evansville, Ind.; M. C. Garber, Madison, Ind.; George W. Sunderland, Parkersburg, W. Va.; W. E. Wells, East Liverpool, O.; B. W. Peterson, Hulihen Quarrier, Thomas O'Brien and D. E. Stalnaker, Wheeling, W. Va.; L. J. Corbly, Huntington, W. Va.; W. A. Patton, Catlettsburg, Ky.; D. J. Sinclair, Steubenville, O.; Beman C. Dawes, Marietta, O.; Sherman H. Eagle, Gallipolis, O.; H. B. Hancock, Portsmouth, O.; Saunders A. Fowler, Paducah, Ky.; A. O. Stanley, Henderson, Ky.; H. A. Marting, Ironton, O.; F. T. Gunther, Owensboro, Ky.; W. A. MacCorkle, Charleston, W. Va.; James P. Leaf, Rochester, Pa.

There is little prospect of a coalboat stage unless some more rain should fall in the upper valleys. The harbor is being filled with coal from the upper pools waiting another rise.

The Ben Hur, Capt. Donnelly, left yesterday afternoon for Parkersburg. The Greenland is due to arrive today.

LEAVES STATE; BRINGS NEW SUIT

As West Virginia Citizen, William T. Wilson Is Trying to Recover for Loss of Arm.

RAILROAD IN CRIMINAL COURT

Attorneys James H. Smith and M. C. Acheson brought suit in the United States circuit court for William T. Wilson, asking $20,000 damages against the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad Company for the loss of an arm. This suit is out of the ordinary, as Wilson was non-suited by Judge Evans in the common pleas courts, and has since become a citizen of West Virginia. His attorneys contended they should not have been non-suited, hence the new action. Wilson was a brakeman on the Panhandle railroad, and met with a peculiar accident while crossing the P. & L. E. tracks. The rails sunk and his arm was cut off by the fall. Excavating had been done by the defendant company, and although Wilson was negligent as to his own company by standing on the pilot of his locomotive against the rules, the defendant company, it is contended, is barred from pleading under the circumstances. It is a nice question and one that every railroad man is interested in.

The West Side Belt Railroad Company was placed on trial on a charge of utilizing a public road in violation of the rights of the property holders.

Charles D. Miller was convicted on a charge of receiving stolen goods. Miller, who is a well-known cement contractor of Bellevue, was alleged to be the leader of a gang of thieves which robbed houses in Bellevue, Avalon and Allegheny last winter. He was tried during the last term of court, convicted and sentenced two years to the penitentiary, but was later granted a new trial. Miller has several other charges pending against him.

Decree of a home for himself and four children by his fraudulent representations, is the charge made by Elizabeth F. Flanigan against G. Louis Eller, for whom she had a capias issued in a suit for $5,000 damages.

In the divorce suit of Edward Phillips against Emma Phillips, the respondent has filed an answer denying the charge of desertion. She accuses her husband of leaving her and demands a jury trial.

A decree nisi was made in the suit of Nettie S. Herd against Thomas D. Herd on grounds of cruelty.

Susan Donahue has sued Thomas Donahue for divorce, alleging desertion.

Everson P. Cole of McKees Rocks filed a bill in equity against the Gold Bullion Mining and Development Company, Joseph F. Sulzner and Wm. B. Duvall, to recover stock certificates for which, it is said, he paid $12,500. He avers the company's main offices are in Pittsburgh and that the stock certificates were placed in trust with the Mercantile Trust Company, from where, the plaintiff claims, Duvall delivered them to Sulzner, president of the defendant company.

An injunction was presented before Judge Buffington asking that a receiver be appointed for the Continental Brick Company of New Jersey, with principal offices in Pittsburgh. It is alleged the company is insolvent.

Frank Hamilton and Charles Ankron of Sutersville, tried a week ago in the United States district court for passing counterfeit money, the jury disagreeing, were released from jail on their own recognizance.

The master in the divorce suit of Mary Glynn against Timothy F. Glynn recommends a decree on grounds of cruelty.

The will of Nancy Martin, mother-in-law of the late Recorder Joseph C. Brown, disposes of an estate of unestimated value. Mrs. Brown is given $2,000 and the residue goes to her, Mrs. George S. Martin, Emma Kenney and William J. Martin, but $1,200 is charged against the share of Emma Kenney and $2,000 against Mrs. Martin.

The First National bank of Pittsburgh entered suit against the estate of C. J. McKee to recover balances alleged to be due on two notes, one for $2,200 and the other for $6,600. Credits are set forth of $478 and $453, and the action is for the balance.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed by Robert W. Hamilton of Blairsville. His liabilities are $3,886 and assets $491.

Moses Hirsch, a clerk of Pittsburgh, filed a petition, giving his liabilities as $1,859 and his assets as $185.

Executions issued: John E. Sykes vs. J. R. Worley, $428; Ella Marie Belle vs. Lena Lenkhardt, administratrix, $856; Eliza Berney et al., assignees, etc., vs. Frank Callahan et ux., $2,848.

LISTEN TO HIGH FINANCE.

Story of Transactions Growing Out of a Promoter's Work Aired in Supreme Court.

Methods of finance, such as taught by Lawson, so far as the inflation of values is concerned, were discussed in the supreme court yesterday in the case of McElroy & Boyle against Albert J. Harnack, E. D. Hartner, Joseph B. Powelson and Percy C. Hamilton. The jury gave McElroy & Boyle, who were brokers, a verdict of $3,816. Harnack and Gartner took an appeal.

The history of the case states that Harnack and Gartner, Hamilton, and a man not a party in the case, were concerned in the promotion of the United States Fireproofing association. They bought a piece of property in Ohio, paying about $15,000 in cash. The property was taken in the name of Harnack at $40,000, and the mortgages then on it and those given in the purchase amounted to $25,000. This property was turned over to the corporation and its stock of $1,350,000 was issued to Harnack. Bonds to the amount of $500,000 secured by mortgages were issued.

Hamilton, who was supposed to be a man of wealth, was to finance the company, and practicaly all the bonds were turned over to him. He was to pay off the mortgage and the appellants assert they understood he had done so until the present difficulty arose. Powelson, they say, was Hamilton's clerk.

The company went into operation and what money it used was raised on notes for which Harnack and Gartner ultimately paid about $70,000. They say that without their knowledge Hamilton and Powelson began to apparently buy and sell bonds on the Pittsburgh stock exchange, making it appear that the bonds were selling at from 93 to 105 per cent of their face. About this time Powelson was speculating in stocks through McElroy & Boyle, they say, and in one transaction put up $22.50 of the bill's $27.50 margin. It is alleged his deals were losing ones and he became indebted to the brokers in $9,438.48. The action brought alleged a joint tort and the appellants claim that no joint cause of action against them was shown.

The appellees' paper book declares that the property was bought for about $2,250 and was subject to a $25,000 mortgage, when conveyed to the company. A week after the purchase the company was organized under New Jersey laws, with an authorized capital of $1,250,000. In the deed conveying the property from Harnack to the company no reference was made to the mortgage of $25,000 because "it wouldn't look well." On the date of this conveyance the company executed its mortgage to the Guaranty Trust Company of New York to secure $500,000 "first mortgage 6 per cent sinking fund gold bonds," although the mortgage was not a first lien. The bonds were turned over to E. D. Gartner & Co.

Later the stock was turned over to Harnack. It is asserted that all the treasurers of the company testified that not a dollar came into the company from the stock or bonds. Still later bonds of the par value of $100,000 or $125,000 were turned over to Hamilton. The sales on the stock exchange followed bonds to the par value of $74,000, being sold at prices from 95 to 105, and then down to 60. It is asserted that E. D. Gartner & Co. sold $23,000 and bought $1,000 of these. Of those sold by them $18,000 went to Powelson, $2,000 to R. C. Hall and $2,000 to brokers in Cleveland.

The allegation is made that Harnack, Gartner and Hamilton knew what money had been paid for the real estate, which represented all the security in the mortgage. It is denied that Powelson was Hamilton's clerk and asserted that he was a clerk in a local bank. It is also said the brokers employed in the transactions were reputable brokers and knew nothing of the character or purposes of the sales.

Several appeals growing out of the will of Mrs. Peninah W. Kountz and her husband, Commodore W. H. Kountz, both deceased, were argued. Mrs. Kountz left her estate to her children and grandchildren in such a manner that her husband had absolute control and was given the right to regulate its distribution by will. The present cases grew out of the matter of trust funds, the four daughters and the Fidelity Title and Trust Company, trustee for the grandchildren, being the appellants. A little over $20,000 is in the trust.

Young Lawyers May Practice.

All the common pleas courts have now adopted the new rule laid down by the court of common pleas No. 3, in which the rules relating to registration and admission to practice are amended to permit all those who are registered in the supreme court in this county, and all those admitted after having passed a supreme court examination, are to be admitted by certificate to the local courts. This lets in about 18 young men who are members of the supreme court, but who failed to pass the examination of the local board. Only the question of moral character is now up to the local board. A number of these will be sworn in on motion Saturday, when their certificates are approved by the local committee.

"Way Down East."

"Way Down East," that delightful and ever popular pastoral drama, will be seen at the Alvin theater next week, and the many theater-goers will have an opportunity to enjoy the exquisite humor, quaintness and rural charm of the piece, together with its perfect realism. "Way Down East" owes its success to the progressiveness of its story, the peculiar but none the less natural types of its characters, and the numerous and strikingly interesting episodes which surround the line of the plot.

WESTMORELAND BOND SALE MUCH MUDDLED

The Municipal & Corporation Securities Company of Pittsburgh, acting on behalf of five banks, further muddled the situation as regards the Westmoreland county $1,000,000 bond issue to build a new court house when it offered yesterday a premium of $12,500 for the bonds. They were already under option for sale to Lucien Clawson and John S. Sell for a premium of $5,000. Yesterday was the last of the 15 days of the option and the amount was tendered, but on account of Controller John H. Hitchman refusing to countersign the last $100,000 of the issue they could not be delivered.

When Carl Schurz Writes

When a man like Carl Schurz, a man who for fifty years has enjoyed the confidence of the greatest legislators of the world, a man who never writes a word without giving it due thought, and who, though writing in an acquired tongue, has made himself a master of that tongue—when such a man presents the Reminiscences of his long and useful life, that work marks an epoch in history and an epoch in literature. When a magazine like McClure's publishes these Reminiscences, it marks an epoch in magazine-making, even for McClure's.

These Schurz papers, which begin in the November McClure's with the fascinating story of the boyhood of Schurz, will take up before long his point of view of such men as Sherman, Grant, Lincoln, Greeley, Cleveland and others whom he knew as intimate friends.

Buy McClure's today—the November number—and begin to read this great series of papers with the first one.

STOCK MARKET WEAK, CLOSING AT THE LOWEST

Fear of Gold Exports and the Depression Abroad Were Factors in the Reaction—Local Securities Dull and Irregular.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market was decidedly irregular yesterday during the first half of the session, then became feverish, and finally closed weak and at the lowest prices of the day. There was a considerable falling off in the volume of speculation, which became quite pronounced during the afternoon. The only real activity was during the early part of the day when prices were advancing and just before the close, when the heaviest decline was in progress.

Wall street ascribed the weakness and hesitation in the market to developments abroad. The London quotations for American securities were lower and the continental markets were depressed. This condition was said to be due to the situation in Russia, where the chief railroad lines were tied up by strikers and where it was reported labor troubles were alarming in their extent. The situation was represented to be so bad, in fact, that there was some talk of the postponement of the Russian loan.

Foreign conditions found reflection in the grain markets. For the first time in weeks the wheat market was active and excited, the May option in Chicago closing at an advance of 2¾ cents for the day. Liverpool was also strong and higher. The upward movement was in the face of a large increase in primary receipts of grain, and was ascribed almost solely to Russian news. In addition to the interruption of traffic on the railroads, which it was feared would extend to the ports of that country, the revised estimates of the Russian grain crops was published, indicating a decrease in the yield of the four principal cereal crops of no less than 721,000,000 bushels as compared with 1904 and a decrease of 286,000,000 bushels as compared with 1903. In financial circles the fear was expressed that the rise in wheat at this time would check exports of breadstuffs and to that extent reduce our trade balance. That this fear was not unfounded was proved by the further advance in sterling exchange rates. At the high mark recorded yesterday it was calculated that gold could be exported to Paris at a profit and there were rumors of engagements for shipment by Saturday's steamer. These rumors, however, were not confirmed. Call loan rates continued easy and declined to 3 per cent at the close, the final bid being 2¾ per cent.

Within an hour after the opening in Wall street several stocks had scored new high prices for the year. Among those were Delaware & Hudson, Jersey Central and American Locomotive common. Chicago & Northwestern also displayed great strength, rising 5 per cent to 240½. The pressure against the Rock Island issues was also relaxed and the entire railroad list ruled steady to firm. Then the whole market became feverish and prices fluctuated rapidly within a narrow range. Renewed weakness appeared in the traction list, Metropolitan Street Railway selling off from 123¾ to 120½. Brooklyn Rapid Transit declined from 77 to 75½ and closed at the lowest.

There was apparently very little support to the general list during the afternoon, and when the pool in Locomotive common tried to take profits, that stock broke sharply from 71½ to 68¾, closing with a loss for the day of 1½ per cent. The buying of United States Steel issues was also disappointing, and the common closed ⅝ and the preferred ⅝ lower than on Wednesday. Pressed Steel Car closed 1¾ per cent lower, and the minor iron and steel issues closed fractionally lower. Amalgamated Copper was quoted ex-dividend of 1¼ per cent and closed 2 per cent lower than on Wednesday. The passage of the dividend on Hide and Leather preferred had been discounted and had little or no effect upon the general industrial list.

In the local stock market the total business amounted to only 2,500 shares. Prices were irregular, but with few exceptions the net changes were unimportant. Westinghouse Electric sold down to 85¾, a loss of 1⅝ points, while Air Brake rallied to 150. The Crucible Steel issues were extremely dull, the common closing unchanged at 15½ and the preferred ⅛ lower at 67⅝. Pittsburgh Brewing common rallied to 27½, which is within a fraction of the high price of the year. Independent Brewing issues were unchanged. National Fire Proofing common closed ⅝ lower at 6⅝ and the preferred unchanged at 21½@21¾. There was no change in the natural gas or coal issues. In the bond department $10,000 Pittsburgh & Allegheny Telephone 5s sold at 83, an advance of ½ per cent. Iron City Trust sold at 118, a decline of 1 per cent and Safe Deposit sold unchanged at 400.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

While the call loan rate declined slightly in Wall street yesterday, there was a renewal of fears of a firmer market within the next week or so, based upon the probability of gold exports, and the fact that with a subsidence of the pension payments the sub-treasury was again drawing cash from the New York banks. The foreign monetary situation again attracted attention, both because of the impending Russian loan and the advance in sterling exchange rates. The progress of the settlement on the stock exchange in London held up the rate for call money there and the open market discount rate also rose above the bank rate. The bank return was weak, showing a loss in bullion of upward of a million dollars coincident with an expansion of the bank's credits to the extent of $17,676,000, thus bringing down the proportion of reserve to liabilities from 45.21 per cent last week to 40.17 per cent. The Bank of Germany, on the other hand, showed very strong recuperation, its cash on hand increasing $11,765,000, accompanied by a large contraction both in loans and note circulation. The discount rate in Berlin also raised a fraction. Discount and sterling exchange were unchanged in Paris.

One of the rumors of the day was that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. would call $15,000,000 Japanese money, which they would remit. It is thought in some quarters that the great strength in exchange has been caused by their buying to prepare for this remittance.

A seat in the Philadelphia stock exchange yesterday sold at $11,000, a decline of $1,000. A seat in the Pittsburgh stock exchange sold at $7,100, a decline of $300. Three years ago seats in the Pittsburgh stock exchange commanded a higher price than those in the Philadelphia exchange.

Carothers & Co. sold 50 shares Iron City Trust at 118 to Childs & Childs. Holmes, Wardrop & Co. sold 50 shares Safe Deposit and Trust at 400 to Fell, Scully, Painter & Beech continued to sell Pittsburgh Plate Glass. Hall and Robinson Brothers were buyers.

Westinghouse Airbrake sold to the extent of 50 shares at 150. The stock has thus far failed to sympathize with the buoyancy of the railroad equipment issues, although it will benefit as largely as any from the large orders placed for cars and locomotives. New York Airbrake closed at a decline of 1¾ per cent.

Westinghouse Electric scored the largest decline on the local board, and in New York General Electric broke 3¾ per cent. There was no news to explain the weakness.

Luster declined to 34, sales at that price amounting to 435 shares. Recent large buyers of the stock stated that there was no news and that the selling was probably profit-taking.

Sproul & Co. were the sellers and J. B. Barbour, Jr., the buyers of the Pittsburgh stock exchange seat changing hands yesterday.

United Copper broke to 33½ in the New York market, but recovered to 33¾. There were no sales of the stock on the Pittsburgh exchange.

A sale was reported yesterday of La Belle Iron works stock at 150, an advance of $10 a share.

Reported transactions on the local curb included 1,000 shares Golden Anchor at 87c and 5,400 shares Black Hills Copper at 2½@3c.

Pittsburgh Oil and Gas 5s were offered at 99 and interest; Union Steel 5s, 93½@93 and interest, and Pittsburgh Coal, 105@105 and interest.

A spirit of conservatism was manifest toward the iron and steel and railroad equipment industrials. An incitement to this spirit was the admonitory tone of the Cleveland Iron Trade Review of a threat early in the present tendency to advance prices." The president of one of the principal car construction companies also came forward with a similar assertion, saying the situation was calculated to do damage by stimulating a rise in the price of materials. Car production, he asserted, is in excess of demand.

A judicial decision by a New York court as to liability of individual members of a speculative pool, which was announced during the trading, was the subject of comment upon the exchange, and was said to cause some uneasiness in the ranks of speculative pools, which have been very active of late.

Rumors continued prevalent of further consolidation of the anthracite interest, but no authority was found for any of the reports in circulation. The statement of net earnings for Ontario & Western in September, showing a decrease because of expenses outgrowing the increase in gross receipts, possibly had some influence on the group.

The Pocahontas Collieries Company reports for September: Total income, $18,456; charges and sinking fund, $8,858; preferred dividend, $7,500; surplus, $3,403. From January 1 to September: Total income, $168,94?; charges and sinking fund, $76,009; preferred dividend, $67,500; surplus, $25,436.

September earnings of the Hudson River Electric Power Company amounted to $89,530 gross, an increase of 32.88 per cent, and $34,963 net, an increase of 30.56 per cent. For nine months the net earnings were $23,242, an increase of 19.89 per cent.

The stockholders of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company have approved the proposition of the directors to increase the capital of the company to $50,000,000 from $15,000,000. It is understood that the directors of the company will meet in a few days, and that they will authorize the offering of new stock at par to the present shareholders to the amount of 25 per cent of their holdings.

The New England Telephone and Telegraph Company has declared a dividend of $1.50 per share, payable November 15 to stock of record at the close of business October 31.

There has never been a year in the history of Chicago's building industry when the demand for all kinds of steel structural material has been as large as at present, notwithstanding the fact that prices for building material are all ranging higher than for several years.

It is reported in Philadelphia that an effort will be made at the meeting of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation directors at which the dividend payable next month will be declared, to have the stock placed upon a 2 or 10 per cent basis, as against 8 per cent at present.

The dividend on American Hide and Leather preferred was passed yesterday. The market had discounted the event.

The International Paper Company has declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on its preferred stock. At the annual meeting of the stockholders the retiring directors were re-elected.

The Manufacturers bank of Pittsburgh has declared a semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent.

According to the testimony of Mr. Perkins and Mr. Schiff in the insurance inquiry, two firms in New York, J. P. Morgan & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co., have made original sales of bonds to the amount of $2,760,000,000 in the last five years, or at the rate of more than half a billion dollars a year. J. P. Morgan & Co. did a rather larger business than Mr. Schiff's firm. As large as this business is it represents only bonds actually sold to the market. The gross business of these two great houses is, of course, much larger. In fact, it may be said that besides their regular business these firms have sold nearly $2,000,000 worth of bonds each working day.

The reaction in Pressed Steel Car common, which closed 1¾ per cent lower, was no doubt partly due to the fact that nothing was said at this week's meeting of the directors concerning a resumption of dividends.

The United States rubber Consolidated income account for five months shows net sales of $15,944,566; manufacturing profit, $2,628,769.

Federal Mining and Smelting for the year ended August 31 reports net profits of $1,242,898; dividends paid, $1,098,898; cash in bank, $558,608.

For the two months ended August 31 the net earnings of Chesapeake & Ohio increased $118,924.

Gross earnings of Southern Railway for the third week in October increased $45,143. For the same week Louisville & Nashville decreased $26,945.

The gross earnings of Atchison for September increased $201,491. Net increased only $7,512.

Net earnings of Hocking Valley for September increased $42,145. For the same month Ontario & Western reported a decrease in net of $15,267.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Money was in good demand and short supply in the market today. Discounts hardened. Much business went to the Bank of England. Trading on the stock exchange was inactive. First-class securities were dull owing to the monetary position and unfavorable bank statement. Consols were easier. Home rails were in continuous demand and improved substantially. Americans opened dull and mostly lower, especially Chesapeake & Ohio, on New York realizations. They remained unsettled and inactive with several stocks below parity, though there was no pressure to sell here. Canadians were depressed at the opening. They rallied slightly and closed dull at the best quotations of the day. Foreigns were irregular. Japanese were firmer. Russians were weak on the strike situation. Japanese imperial 6s of 1904 were quoted at 102. Consols for money 88⅝; consols for account, 88 7-16. Bar silver dull at 28⅜d per ounce. Money 2½@4 per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 4@4½ per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for three months' bills is 4@4½ per cent.

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—There were no pronounced changes on the bourse today. Americans were slightly weaker. Exchange on London 20 marks 46½ pfenn

CHEESE MARKET WEAK ON PRESENT ADVANCE

Butter and Egg Market Firmer. Price of Cheese Is Higher Than for Years.

There were a number of changes in the local markets yesterday. Several new articles made their appearance and business was generally good with all merchants. Concord grapes are on the market and found ready buyers, as did Catawbas. Delaware and Niagara grapes are not to be had on the local market.

Head lettuce made its appearance and found a ready sale at from 75 cents to $1 00. Peaches of any kind are not to be had. Sauerkraut in barrels made its appearance. Boston cucumbers are now on the market and sell at from $1 75 to $2 00 a dozen.

Live hens are lower in price than they have been for some time.

Cheese is also higher and the market is weak on the present advance. The butter and egg market is firmer than for some time, although a good demand continues for fine creamery.

The wholesale grocers are awaiting the large shipments of flour which have been tied up on account of the scarcity of cars throughout the northwest.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania lines, 30 cars hay, 35 cars oats, 10 cars rye, 5 cars feed, 2 cars corn, 1 car screenings; Baltimore & Ohio, 7 cars hay, 3 cars corn, 1 car oats; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 1 car hay, 1 car rye, 1 car oats.

The market continues active and higher. Oats are not selling here at lay-down prices, even with advances. An excellent demand exists with cereal mills for oats and they are active with buyers at all eastern points. A great many oats are being exported and with present conditions continuing a further advance is looked for. Balance of the market is steady.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

Tecumseh has opened the Kearsarge lode at the location of drill hole No. 3, the place where shaft No. 2 will be located, at a depth of 15 feet. The lode was opened by a pit 15 feet deep and discloses the characteristic amygdaloid as opened at shaft No. 1, showing considerable copper. This discovery proves that Tecumseh has the strike of the lode across its entire location and that it is a copper-bearing formation throughout its entire length. This discovery seems to settle the future of Tecumseh and is a bull point for all the surrounding properties.

The New Century Zinc and Lead Mining Company of Galena, Kan., has declared its regular 65th monthly dividend of 1 per cent, payable November 1.

It is reported at Cripple Creek that $125,000 has been paid for an option on a controlling interest in the Midway mine.

The report of the Camp Bird, Limited, for the year shows increases in every department of mining, says the Ouray Herald. The aggregate profits for the year amount to $1,810,-595, from which a payment of $888,475, as royalty, was made to Thomas F. Walsh. Some 74,000 tons of ore were treated, against 70,000 last year, and there was a considerable reduction of cost, for which credit is given to better freight rates and smelting charges. As a rule, a much higher grade of ore has been mined during the past year, the sales of bullion and concentrates both showing great increase. Aside from the general increase in profits, the ore reserves have been increased $150,000. Four dividends and a bonus have been paid during the year.

The average price of lake copper for the year 1905 will not be far from 15½ cents, and the Copper Range management expects to receive this figure and perhaps a shade better for its products of between 25,000,000 and 27,000,000 pounds. After an expenditure of $250,000 for construction at Baltic, Champion and Trimountain, the Copper Range Consolidated, including receipts from the railroad, is confident of its ability to show net earnings for the stockholders in 1905 of $2,500,000. To show these profits on a production of 25,000,000 pounds, it will be necessary to make the copper at a cost of 15 cents per pound, and this achievement the company expects to show in its next annual report.

The main shaft of the Tonopah Home is now down a little more than 300 feet, and water was struck this week. This fact, taken in connection with the formation and the fact that stringers of silver are being cut almost daily, is considered a favorable indication. The present contract for sinking will be completed in a few days, when another contract for sinking a further 100 feet will be let.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The London tin market was about $8 higher at £178 17s 6d for spot, and £148 5s for futures. The local market, however, continued quiet at an advance of about 10 points on the average to $32 45@32 75 for spot. Copper was irregular in London, closing at £71 10s for spot and at £70 10s for futures. The local market was unchanged. Lake is quoted at $16 87½@16 75; electrolytic at $16 25@16 62½; casting at $16 00@16 87½. Lead was unchanged at £14 7s 6d in London and at 5.05@5 40 for spot supplies in the local market. Spelter was steady at $6 15@6 25 locally. The London market was a shade lower at £28 10s. Iron was higher in the English market, closing at 61s 9d for standard foundry, and at 53s 6d for Cleveland warrants. The local market was firm. No. 1 foundry northern and No. 1 foundry southern are quoted at $18 25@18 50; No. 2 foundry northern and southern at $17 75@18 00.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Moderate activity continued in our market today with prices practically unchanged. One house bought 2,000 shares North Butte for a rise, which appeared to clean up most of the floating stock. Copper Range advanced sharply to 75¾ on good buying, but declined toward the close in sympathy with the weakness of the New York market. Tecumseh and Franklin continue steady and appear to be in good demand. Boston Consolidated is being bought heavily by New York and is very active at present. We still advise taking quick profits on every bulge.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points under continued liquidation, disappointing French cables and somewhat heavier receipts. RUSSIAN STRIKE HAS ITS EFFECT ON WHEAT

Sensational Advance Results on Reports of Trouble in the Czar's Empire.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Threatened total paralysis of railroad traffic in Russia caused a sensational advance here today in the price of wheat. At the highest point of the session, the price of May option showed a gain of 2¾ cents compared with yesterday's final quotations. December was up 1¾. The market closed practically the top figures of the day. Coarse grain shared in the bullish enthusiasm. December corn finishing ⅞ up and oats ¾. Provisions are up a shade to 5 cents.

With the markets of Europe all agitated over the critical situation in Russia, the wheat market here opened amid marked excitement. Clamorous covering by shorts was simultaneous with a big investment demand. The result was an unusual buying demonstration. An advance of 1@1¼ in the price of wheat at Liverpool formed the immediate cause of the opening figures. Offerings at first were exceedingly meagre and consequently, initial quotations showed radical gains, the May option being up 5c to 1¾@1¾ at 83½ to 90@90¾. December was up ½ to ¾ at 88¼ to 88½. For a time trading was at almost white heat. Under cover of the excitement there was heavy selling of the December option by a leading long. There was also liberal selling by commission houses. This arrested temporarily the bullish trend of the market, and caused some reaction in prices, December declining to 88. The price of May delivery, however, did not recede below the lowest point recorded at the opening. Cable advices from Europe regarding the situation in Russia were extremely pessimistic. A dispatch from Odessa stated that loading of grain at that port had become exceedingly difficult owing to the labor disturbance, and the market was greatly excited. This information started fresh buying, mainly on the part of early sellers being an excuse to reinstate lines. Much of the latter demand was for the May delivery.

As a result the premium for May over December advanced to over 2 cents as against 1¼ yesterday. In addition to the foreign situation the domestic news was also quite favorable to the bulls. Minneapolis reported that receipts of wheat from the country were very light. The price of cash wheat at all leading grain centers showed a decided advance. Demand for flour in the northwest was excellent. Excitement in the pit continued unabated throughout the session. Increased demand within the last half hour of trading caused a fresh upward spurt in prices. May advancing to over 1⅛ and December to 98½. The close was strong with final quotations on May at 91⅞@91⅝. December closed at 89⅛. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 292,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,245,000 bushels compared with 815,000 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 764 cars against 792 cars last week and 676 cars a year ago.

The corn market was active and strong. Reason for the sharp upturn in wheat was equally good for a more moderate advance in the price of the yellow cereal. Early in the session there was an active general demand. On the bulge there was considerable profit-taking, which resulted in some reaction. Later the market gained fresh strength from liberated reports of poor returns from huskings. The close was strong with prices at the highest point of the day. December opened ¼ to ⅜ higher at 45 to 45¼, sold between 45¾@46⅜ and closed at the top. Local receipts were 100 cars, with 26 of contract grade.

Sentiment in the oats market was bullish, and the volume of trading was large. The main influence was caused by the strike situation in Russia. Export demand was reported brisk. The market closed at almost the highest point of the day. December opened ¼ higher at 30 cents, sold up to 30¾ and closed at 30⅝. Local receipts were 204 cars.

Provisions were a trifle easier during the early part of the session, but a steadier tone developed later in the day. A decline of 5 to 10 cents in the price of live hogs had a depressing effect early. Strength of grain, however, offset this influence.

At the close January pork was up 5 cents at $12 40@12 42½. Lard showed a gain of 2½@5 cents at $6 80. Ribs were a shade higher at $6 50.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 119 cars; corn, 127 cars; oats, 224 cars; hogs, 23,000 head.

THE OIL FIELDS

The lower southwest fields continue to furnish nothing better than light producers. Operations in the deep sand districts show a decline and no prospects for any great revival in the near future. In Clay district, Monongahela county, Thomas, Todd & Phillips have drilled a second test on the S. V. Lantz farm into the Big Injun and have developed a very strong gas pressure. In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 19 on the Fairfield Peterson farm 23 feet into the Gordon and the hole has filled up 1,000 feet with fluid. It will make a light producer. In the Garther district, Marshall county, the South Penn gave its No. 2 on the W. E. McIlvaine farm a shot and it failed to respond. It will be abandoned.

In the Wick district, Tyler county, the late wells that came in good producers have declined and there are now but five in the district, producing 60 or more barrels a day. The Melrose Oil and Gas Company's No. 1 on the A. D. Arnett farm is holding up at 65 barrels a day.

Light pumpers and dusters are all that the Southeastern Ohio fields had to offer. In the Jerusalem district, Monroe county, Mooney & Burke have drilled their test on the J. V. Brown farm through the Berea grit and have a duster in that and all of the upper formations.

In the Macksburg field, Washington county, the Minicks Oil Company has completed No. 4 on the John Dixon farm and will not have better than a 5-barrel pumper in the 500-foot sand. In the Cow Run district, in the same county, William Reader has completed No. 3 George Wallace through the first Cow Run sand and has a light pumper.

In the Wells Creek district, Jefferson county, all efforts to advance the producing area of the pool results in dry holes. Casiner Bros. have completed their test on the George Draper farm and have a duster. The same parties have completed a test on the Joseph Miller farm and had the same kind of luck. They have drilled in their No. 2 on the R. B. Dixon farm and have a show for a 20-barrel producer in the Berea grit. West of Empire, in the same county, E. H. Dyer & Co. have completed No. 2 on the R. E. Gladden farm and have a show for a 5-barrel pumper. On Island creek, Chambers Bros. have completed a test on the Joseph Chambers farm and have a duster. Lantz & Pentz have completed No. 7 on the Morrow heirs' farm and have a light pumper. In the same district, U. G. Marks & Co. have completed No. 4 H. S. Rhinehart and have a duster in the Berea grit. In the Bonds Creek district, Ritchie county, Hall, Gold & Zahniser have completed their No. 7 on the Joseph McGregor farm and have a show for a 25-barrel producer in the Keener formation.

West of the Bakerstown tunnel, Allegheny county, Pa., Miller & Co. have drilled their test on the Brice Owens farm 28 feet below where the third sand should have been found and missed that formation.

REASON IS GIVEN FOR CAR FAMINE

Equipment Carries Coal to Far-Away Cities—Little Kanawha Case Is Dismissed.

NEW BRIDGES FOR P. & L. E.

Pittsburgh people do not appreciate what the coal production of this territory means to the outside world. That is, all of the people excepting the railroad officers and coal operators do not appreciate this fact. Such is the opinion of W. Z. Cromlish, coal and coke agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in this territory, and Mr. Cromlish is borne out in this statement by railroad and coal men.

"I thought I had some idea of the extent to which coal enters into the business and traffic of Pittsburgh," said Mr. Cromlish, "but until I was placed in charge of the coal and coke traffic of the Baltimore & Ohio in this district I had no idea of the enormous extent of the value of Pittsburgh coal to other cities. It is not every city that possesses such quantities of gas as does Pittsburgh, that coal becomes a secondary fuel product. Take a glance about you here on any day in the fall or winter and you will observe that not more than one wagon in 15, or I might say 25, is hauling coal. Go to Columbus and other cities and you will see that one wagon out of every five is hauling coal.

"The Pittsburgh people do not realize this, and this lack of appreciation of the vast amount of coal hauled by the railroads, I believe, extends to the big shippers. Cars, cars, cars, is the cry, and it is really a question of cars now, but the railroads are no more to blame than many of the shippers and coal dealers. The coal is shipped to cities far away from Pittsburgh and requires time for transit to and from destination. Then, if the cars are not unloaded very promptly, there is another delay.

"There is one thing that is noticeable on all railroads. It used to be a case of tracing cars every hour a few years ago. Nowadays we do not get one case to trace where we used to have 25 cases. The shipping and operating departments of railroads have become more perfect every year."

More New Bridges for P. & L. E.

Contracts were awarded yesterday for two bridges for the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad. One of these is to be built across Turtle creek on the Monongahela division and the other over Bradys run at Bridgewater, near Beaver Falls. Both structures are to be of concrete. The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie awarded a contract a few days ago for a double-track steel bridge over the Shenango river at New Castle junction, this structure to be an extension of the present double-track bridge there, giving provision for four tracks. The company is replacing all of its older bridges. By the end of next year there will likely not be a single bridge on the company's lines that has not been rebuilt within three years. All the new structures are being built for four tracks on the main line north and for two tracks, unless otherwise needed, on the divisions south from here.

The Turtle creek bridge will consist of three 58-foot arches for five tracks. This will be built by the Dravo Contracting Company, and will replace a double-track structure. The Bridgewater bridge will consist of two arches of 20 feet each and one of 28 feet, for four tracks. The contract was given to Stratton-Lewis & Co. The company has also contracted with Robert A. Cummings for the construction of a concrete retaining wall along the river road at Esplen borough.

Party Going to Storrs' Funeral.

One of the special parties that will attend the funeral of Henry S. Storrs, general superintendent of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road today at Cleveland, will be from Pittsburgh. It will be headed by General Superintendent J. B. Yohe and will consist of B. C. Vaughn, W. A. Terry, L. A. Robison and J. W. Riley of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie; General Agent D. F. Hurd of the Lake Shore's traffic department here and Supt. G. B. Obey of the Monongahela railroad at Brownsville. The party will travel in Mr. Yohe's official car. The services, which will be in charge of the Knights Templar, will be held at the Euclid Avenue Congregational church at Euclid and Logan avenues, Cleveland, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The honorary pallbearers will be the general superintendents of the roads comprising the New York Central lines. The funeral will be attended by a number of other Pittsburgh railroad men who knew Mr. Storrs intimately.

Waiting for a Chance to Test Them.

The Lake Shore & Michigan Southern recently secured a number of big shifting engines, some of which have been assigned to the Jamestown & Franklin division for "pushers" up the hill to the Lake Erie harbor. Duke Murray, superintendent of this division, is proud of the high record freight haul made on his division several months ago, which stands without a parallel at 6,048 tons in one train.

"We are not endeavoring to better that record now," said Mr. Murray. "We are waiting for some other fellow to do that and crow about the high record like we did. Then we are going to step in and haul a load of 8,000 tons with one of our new monsters, one like that which was shown in The Gazette a couple of weeks ago. Those big fellows can take 8,000 tons like a feather. They weigh 276,000 pounds and ought to be pretty good at the business."

Little Kanawha Matter Dismissed.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26.—The motion of the defendants in the receivership suit against the Little Kanawha syndicate to quash the service was granted by United States Judge Richards today, who at the same time abrogated the temporary injunction against the sale of the property of the syndicate. This left pending a motion for the appointment of a receiver and the attorneys later expressed a desire to clear up the matter. Judge Richards dismissed the whole matter on the ground of lack of jurisdiction. The attorneys for John S. Jones of Chicago, who began the suit, will have an opportunity to carry the matter to the United States court of appeals next month, or begin a new suit elsewhere.

N. & W. on 4 Per Cent Basis.

One of the best of the Pennsylvania's allied railroads has just shown evidence of the excellent business it is doing. The directors of the Norfolk & Western declared a semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent upon the common stock, thus placing the road on a 4 per cent basis. Since 1902 the road has been paying 3 per cent a year on the common stock. The directors also authorized the issuance of $2,000,000 of car trust certificates to finance the purchase of new equipment. The company is asking bids for 1,500 coal cars, 1,000 box cars and 500 coke cars, and is also in the market for 50 freight engines.

Wabash Getting Special Service.

Word was received in Pittsburgh yesterday that the special service of police department of the Wabash railroad is being re-established. This is the department that was among the first to be abolished when Joseph Ramsey, Jr., was given a leave of absence and F. A. Delano took charge of the road's operations last summer. It was also one of the big points in the Gould-Ramsey dispute in Wabash affairs.

Railroad Notes.

The Erie ordered 50 freight locomotives for February delivery.

D. F. Maroney, president of the Uniontown & Wheeling Short Line, went to New York.

The Pennsylvania has ordered 100 of the 250 locomotives assigned to be built at Juniata shops of the company.

John B. Thayer, fourth vice president of the Pennsylvania, has been elected a director of the Chesapeake & Ohio.

N. K. Hoffman, superintendent of car service of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, returned from the American Railway association's convention.

General Superintendent Robert Pitcairn and Superintendent B. W. Dyer returned from a conference with Baltimore & Ohio officers at Baltimore.

J. N. Bastedo, passenger agent of the Santa Fe at Detroit, has been advanced to general agent of the passenger department at Cincinnati as successor to George T. Gunnip.

Robert Pitcairn of the Pennsylvania was elected warden of the American Railway Guild and E. C. Carter, chief engineer of the Northwestern line, was chosen master.

It is announced that the Pennsylvania will establish a through freight car is daily service between Pittsburgh and Emporium and other points north of Driftwood on the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley division.

Pennsylvania coal and coke shipments last week totaled 955,331 tons—839,963 tons of bituminous coal, 237,294 tons of coke and 31,074 tons of anthracite coal. To date the year's shipments are more than 4,000,000 tons greater than in the same period last year.

Has $146,300 to Meet $665,000.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 26.—The Indemnity Savings and Loan company, which recently passed into the hands of a receiver, according to the report of the trustees, owes its 3,000 depositors, most of whom live in Ohio, $665,229. To meet this liability, the company has $99,468 of cash on hand and $46,805 99 of negotiable securities.

NEEDLE PARALYSIS

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS THE ONLY SAFEGUARD.

One of the Afflicted Tells How They Restored the Use of Palsied Fingers.

Too steady use of a particular set of muscles tends to chronic fatigue, which produces faulty or difficult motion, trembling, cramps and even paralysis. Writers, stenographers, telegraphers, tailors and seamstresses are among the classes most threatened in this way with the loss of their power to earn a living. The only safeguard is to keep up the supply of nerve force through the blood, which carries to the nerves the food that supports their strength. The following instance shows that nerve power may be recovered after it seems entirely lost, if the right means are taken. Mrs. O. S. Blacksten of No. 584 North Bowman street, Mansfield, Ohio, says:

"For years my hands would become so numb at times that I would drop anything I attempted to lift. Later they became so bad that I could not sew any longer. As soon as I put on my thimble a pricking sensation would begin in my finger tips and run up to my shoulders. I got so at last that I could scarcely do anything at all with my hands.

"There was another serious discomfort. At night the pricking sensations would come on worse than ever. When I retired my hands and arms would pain so that I dreaded to go to bed. I suffered more than I can make anyone understand. My family doctor gave me some nerve tablets. They helped me a little, but only for a short time after I had taken them. If I happened to be without them for a day or two I would be as bad as ever or even worse.

"One day a book was left at my door. I looked at it and got interested in reading accounts of cures from nervous troubles effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. That very day I got a box and began to take them. The result was surprising. Thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I am now all right. I can sleep undisturbed by pain, and I am in fact as well as I ever was in my life."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made some marvelous cures in severe nervous disorders, because they feed the blood with vital elements and so restore lost nerve force. And, through the blood, they strike at the root of all common blood diseases such as anaemia, general weakness, indigestion, headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, backache and the special ailments of women when their blood becomes poor or irregular. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
